Former Teacher Files For School Board

FARMINGTON (Larry) Kevelighan, 32-year-old teacher-turned-lawyer, says his background and a continuing interest in education led him to seek a place on the Farmington Board of Education.

One four-year term will be filled by voters at a June 14 election.

STOP Intruders, Burglars, Addicts!

New plug-in Preventor II burglar alarm system gives you the most advanced protection ever devised for home security.

- Ultra-quiet "generator" sends a protected "no man's land" in your home.
- No intruder can pass through without triggering air-piercing alarm, turning on lights, and/or instantly calling the police.
- Nothing chases intruders faster.
- Also provides fire smoke protection.
- Inexpensive — costs just a fraction of old-fashioned wired alarm systems.
- For a no-obligation demonstration, call revenue has to come from some place."

HE ALSO expressed sympathy for teach union demands saying: "I think we have a real good faculty in Farmington and we must remain competitive with other systems if we want to continue to attract this type of teacher to our system."

"As a homeowner, I am as concerned about taxes going up as anyone else," he said. "But necessary expenditures have to be made and the

FHS Staging 'Tonight Show'

FARMINGTON A makeshift "Tonight Show" complete with Johnny Carson will highlight Farmington Senior High's annual talent show on May 21.

Senior Dale Brandenburg will direct the show starring Mike Klepinger as Johnny Carson, Ralph Josephson as Ed McMahon and Gary Haverkate as Doc Severinsen.

Guests will include Greg Steele and Don Holmes with guitar and vocal acts, Rose Angella and Maryanne Lizotte in piano and vocal acts, Floyd Matson on guitar, Karen Stewart and Mark Bonies singing with the "NBC" orchestra and the Gary Haverkate Trio with a musical number.
