Lincoln Avery, chairman of the Farmington Hills Beautification Commission and mem-ber Joo Derck finish a display of the city's symbols on view at Farmington Hills City Hall, 31555 11 Mile, through March 2. The symbols were chosen by the commission and include the day lify, the oak tree, glant swallowfall, and the red cardinal. The cardi-nal was chosen as the symbol for both Fermington Hills and Fermington through the help of a public survey. The bright red bird is one of five species native to the area.
