team, her enthusiasm and abilities were a positive example for all our players to model," Salem coach Alie Sully said.

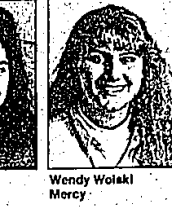

Laura Fisher, senior, Wayne Memorial, Fisher, a setter, recorded 216 digs and 92 service aces. She had 860 kill assists (7.6 average per game) and did not hit the net as well as a 4.0 kill percentage. A three-time Wolverine A League choice, Fisher made the all-region team. She helped lead the Zebras to two state Class A quarterfinal berths and three straight Wolverine A League titles (42-0 overall).

She will play at Madonna University.

"For three years Laura has been the backbone of Wayne volleyball," coach said. "There is never enough to be said about Laura. Not only is she a talented volleyball player, but she is a wonderful and sweet young lady."

CRUSADERS SPLIT SOFTBALL DH

Madonna's fifth-inning, run-scoring double knocked in Megan Armstrong, giving Madonna University a 3-2 softball win in the second game of a doubleheader with host Aquinas Wednesday. The Lady Crusaders dropped the opener 7-3.

It was the first NAIA District 23 games for both teams. Madonna is 8-6 overall and 1-1 in the conference. Aquinas is 11-4, 1-1.

In the second game, Kim Supron's (Livonia Ladywood) first-inning double accounted for Madonna's first two runs, scoring Megan and Mandy Armstrong.

Tracy Vachon was the winning pitcher, allowing four hits and striking out three. But it wasn't an easy game to finish; players had to rake snow off the field to play the bottom half of the seventh inning.

In the first game, Aquinas jumped in front with a four-run fourth inning. They added three more runs in the fifth.

Kristen Wastl was the losing pitcher for the Crusaders, yielding nine hits and one walk. Jodi Borowicz collected the win for the Saints, hurling a six-hitter; she fanned four and did

She will play at Madonna University.

"For three years Laura has been the backbone of Wayne volleyball," coach said. "There is never enough to be said about Laura. Not only is she a talented volleyball player, but she is a wonderful and sweet young lady."

Wendy Wolak, senior, Farmington Mercy. The All-Catholic League selection had a serve reception of 89 percent (216-243) and was good on 92 percent of her serves (307-337), with 51 aces. She had 231 digs and 160 kills with a kill percentage of 258. She finished with 97 solo blocks.

"Wendy consistently improved throughout the season," Mercy coach Ann Kynsley said. "The more pressure, the better she played. Her best match of the season was during the regional when she had 16 kills."

Janel Hemme, senior, Ladywood: A two-time captain, Hemme closed out her career with All-Catholic League honors, averaging 9.2 digs and 2.3 blocks per game. She also averaged 1.7 serving aces per game.

"Janel acquired all of her volleyball skills through hard work," Teeters said. "Throughout the year Janel and her partner (Michelle Wilson) had some of the best paired-off defensive practices I've seen. What I will miss most with Janel is her ability to make volleyball enjoyable for everyone around her, and that smile."

Crusaders split softball DH

Madonna's fifth-inning, run-scoring double knocked in Megan Armstrong, giving Madonna University a 3-2 softball win in the second game of a doubleheader with host Aquinas Wednesday. The Lady Crusaders dropped the opener 7-3.

It was the first NAIA District 23 games for both teams. Madonna is 8-6 overall and 1-1 in the conference. Aquinas is 11-4, 1-1.

Kristen Wastl was the losing pitcher for the Crusaders, yielding nine hits and one walk. Jodi Borowicz collected the win for the Saints, hurling a six-hitter; she fanned four and did not walk a batter.

Madonna scored its runs in the seventh inning when Megan Armstrong doubled to score Jill Burt and Kay Lee Davis, both having singled, and Holly Jondro, who reached base on a fielder's choice.

The opening of the District 23 portion of Madonna's schedule isn't easy, the Crusaders now must tackle defending district champ Siena Heights in a doubleheader at Ford Field Tuesday. Both Siena Heights and Aquinas are ranked in the NAIA's national top 30.

"I take a split against these two anytime," said Madonna coach Dave Racer.

FINALLY, A GAME.

Madonna University's baseball team, idle since its spring trip to Florida ended March 8, opened its northern season the same way it ended its southern one: by winning. The Fighting Crusaders swept a doubleheader from NAIA District 23 foe Siena Heights, 4-2 and 3-2, Friday in Adrian.

Jill Terzki delivered a two-out, three-run double in the first inning to highlight the opening win. Jeff Pendell added a run-scoring double in the second. Terzki had two hits in the game. Mike Hocking was the winning pitcher, he surrendered just four hits and three walks, striking out three.

Ernie Bowling, sitting out the second game with a sore back, got in one at-bat and made good on it — he lined a two-run single with two out in the fourth to score the tying and winning runs. T.C. Rapids, who had two hits, singled in Madonna's first run earlier in the fourth.

"Dennis Hamilton tossed a five-hitter to collect the victory; he walked four and fanned five.

The Crusaders raised their record to 14-1, 2-0 in the district. They have a rematch with Siena Heights at 4 p.m. today at Redford's Capitol Park.

Leave a clean trail.
