exhibitions

● CENTER GALLERIES
To April 17 — A survey of works by Lorna Simpson is on exhibition. This showing, her first in Detroit, includes 10 photo/text works dating from 1989 to Simpson's most recent works.

Simpson draws on her personal experiences as a black woman to produce works that address issues of race and gender and examine the effects of societal perceptions and expectations on the individual. Comprised of photographic imagery and text, her art is at times provocative, at times enigmatic, and often employs a mordant wit in its examination of commonly held beliefs and social conventions.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, in the Park Shelton Building at Woodward and Kirby, Detroit, 874-1955.

● SWIDLER GALLERY
To April 18 — Sculpture by John Stephenson, utilitarian pottery by George Bowes and glass jewelry by Allen Owen and Elizabeth Cary are exhibited. Stephenson of Ann Arbor, acting dean of the University of Michigan School of Art, earned degrees at the University of Iowa and Cranbrook Academy of Art. His work is included in the Detroit Institute of Arts. Hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday or by appointment, 308 W. Fourth, Royal Oak, 542-4880.

● DETROIT FOCUS
To April 18 — "On and Off the Computer" continues. The exhibit samples the work of 16 southeastern Michigan artists who use computers as part of their art process. As described by curator Duane Palyka, who teaches computers to artists at the University of Michigan School of Art, the artist may use the computer as a controlling part of a sculpture, an interactive device to control a laser beam or a controlling device to make an unusual videotape of emerging images. The works are primarily wall pieces and sculptures. Hours are noon to 8 p.m. Wednesday-Saturday, 743 Beaubien, third floor, Detroit, 962-9025.

● CREATIVE ARTS CENTER
Through April 23 — "Perceptions of Women" continues.

The exhibition is an intense and thought-provoking look at how the artists perceive themselves and other women. The works range from psychological self-portraits to mythic visions, docudramas to political commentary. Included are painting, sculpture, photography and video by nine artists, among them Sue Carman of Birmingham, Bertha Cohen and Dale Sparago of Bloomfield Hills, Judy Ellyas of Ferndale and Grace Serra of Oak Park.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, 47 Williams, Pontiac, 333-7849.

● PARK WEST GALLERY
Through April 23 — The gallery's winter exhibition and sale of new acquisitions continues.

The newly acquired collection features more than 150 paintings, watercolors, lithographs, etchings and serigraphs; creations by Alvar, Boulanger, Cambier, Chagall, Dali, Fanch, Goya, He Neng, Jiang, Lebadang, Markos, Miro, Mouly, Picasso, Picot, Rembrandt, Robbe, Wolfson, Tarkay and Vasarely. The gallery has developed a special offer for Park West Collectors Card holders to help finance winter exhibition purchases.

Also at the gallery, through April, 37 watercolors by French artist Eugene Cambier are the highlight of a special exhibition. The gallery commissioned Cambier's works specifically for this show.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday-Wednesday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday-Friday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday-Sunday, 29469 Northwestern Highway, Southfield, 354-2343.

● SISSON GALLERY
Through April 24 — The 35th annual Student Art Exhibition, featuring studio work by art and design students at Henry Ford Community College, continues. Hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Friday, to 8 p.m. Tuesday-Wednesday. MacKenzie Fine Arts Building, HFCC, 5101 Evergreen, Dearborn, 845-9634.

● HABATAT/SHAW GALLERY
To April 25 — A one-person exhibition, "Lee Stoliar — Recent Work," continues. Stoliar produces exaggerated bas-reliefs. Her terra cotta wall sculptures are contained within lacquered black boxes, the figures stretching, pushing and squirming beyond the outer confines.

Also running through April 25 will be "Mid-century Italian Ceramics: Gambone, Fantoni and Other Master Modernists."

Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 32255 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, 851-8767.

● TROY ART GALLERY
Through April 25 — The striking colors of paintings by Isabelle Owens, distinctive raku and porcelains by Hannelore and unusual handcrafted silver and gold jewelry by Richard Fasciszewski are featured in an exhibition. Hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 515 S. Lafayette, Royal Oak, 548-7919.

Water garden workshop scheduled

Cranbrook P.M., in cooperation with the Cranbrook Institute of Science and Grass Roots Nursery, will present a workshop on "Water Gardens: Simple Steps to Bring Success."

The workshop will simplify the process of developing this special form of gardening to adapt to your own needs. For information and reservations, call Cranbrook P.M. at 645-3635.

An indoor workshop took place Wednesday, April 8.

AN OUTDOOR workshop is scheduled for 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, May 9, at the Reflecting Pool at the Cranbrook Institute of Science, 500 Lone Pine Road.

Scott Bates of Grass Roots Nursery and Dan Gromek will offer practical hands-on activity showing the step-by-step process of developing a water garden.

Bates is the resident water garden specialist for this company, which has created garden ponds for Fairlane Manor, First Federal Bank of Michigan, the Cranbrook Institute of Science and exhibits at Cobo Hall.

Gromek is responsible for the care and maintenance of the reflecting pool and tropical gardens at Cranbrook.

Participants will assist in the preparation and planting in the ponds. Appropriate clothing should be worn. Fee is $10.

Cranbrook P.M. is a program of continuing education and outreach of Cranbrook Schools. Cranbrook Schools are a division of the Cranbrook Educational Community, which also includes the Cranbrook Academy of Art and Museum and Cranbrook Institute of Science.

Costume talk set

Southfield Cultural Arts and the Detroit Institute of Arts will present "Costumes Through the Ages" at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 15, in the Southfield Public Library Marcotte Room, 26000 Evergreen.

Marlene Haimel from the Speakers Bureau will show slides of unusual fashions from other times and around the world. An open discussion will take place. Free refreshments will be served.

Tickets are $5. Reserve early, as seating is limited. Call 354-4717 for reservations and information.

Use color

The Paint Creek Center for the Arts offers a new four-day color theory workshop for adults, 10 a.m. to noon Thursdays, April 16 to May 7.

Registration deadline is April 9. For more information, call the PCCA at 651-4110.
