Teen day centers named for retiring county exec

A newly opened Day Student Center operated by Camp Oakland youth programs will be dedicated in the name of Oakland County Executive Daniel T. Murphy Thursday in Commerce Township.

The center, cited by child care authorities as an innovative alternative to full-time residential treatment for adolescents, is the second to be operated by Camp Oakland in Oakland County. The first center opened at Camp Oakland's 320-acre site in Oxford in January 1990 and will also bear Murphy's name.

Both Murphy and his wife, Carolyn, will be honored at ceremonies at 10:30 a.m. at the new center's site, 9491 Wise Road, Commerce Township.

Both centers serve 26 teenage boys and girls who have been referred by the Juvenile Division of Oakland County Probate Court because of trouble in their homes, communities or schools.

Naming the Day Student Centers for Murphy recognizes his long-term dedication to Camp Oakland and its work with children and teenagers, according to Camp Oakland board president Gary Baumann of Farmington Hills, and Dale Johnson, of Bloomfield Township, chairman of the child care agency.

THE DAY STUDENT PROGRAM, a Camp Oakland resolution states, "embodies the cost-saving and improved service delivery principles espoused by Mr. Murphy as an agency volunteer, private citizen and elected official."

Oakland County officials, parents and other guests are expected to attend the dedication. Baumann and Johnson will also present Carolyn Murphy with a crystal globe representing the center's future.

The ceremony will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the new center's site, 9491 Wise Road, Commerce Township.

scouting Camp Oakland's motto, "We touch the future."

Mrs. Murphy has been a dedicated volunteer and member of Camp Oakland's board of directors for 23 years. The new annual Volunteer Service Award will carry her name.

The ceremonies open at 10:30 a.m. with an open house and tour of the Center, located on 20 acres of the Proulx Lake State Recreation Area. The acreage is leased from the State of Michigan and formerly was a Nike missile base.

The day students will conduct the tour. Following the 11 a.m. ceremony, the students will serve guests a buffet lunch.

The daily 12-hour Day Student programs provide an alternative to expensive 24-hour residential care for juveniles at less than half the cost. For launching the centers,

Camp Oakland is being honored May 20 by the Michigan Federation of Private Child and Family Agencies for "one of the state's most innovative new programs."

THE FEDERATION'S CITATION states, "the program allows the agency to serve many more at-risk children and families than has been possible in the past."

The federation said the program utilizes family and community involvement and achieves a success rate of approximately 60 percent.

Camp Oakland provides residential or day student care and counseling for 110 adolescent boys and girls. The agency annually serves about 800 children and families through its seven treatment programs and three sites in Oakland and Lapeer counties.
