With the annual $100,000 midwest fans one of the few added Mitchigan mile and an eight hies sthan a month away berby winner race in Detroit on Saturday, June 19, officials at the Detroit Race Course are dreaming about one of the races of the year with the possibility that Canonero II, same basis nationwide as it the Drilliant winner of the Kentucky Derby and The Kentucky Derby and The Preakness, may be a starter.

If Canonero loses the Belmont, then his owner will consider running the colt anywhere in the United States where he figures the colt has a good chance to win. DRC officials are awaiting the deadline to learn if he is nominated and then they'll be watching the outcome of the Belmont with considerable
