

Musical programs at Nardin

Two musical events are scheduled for Nardin Park United Methodist Church in Farmington Hills Sunday, May 17.

During the morning worship services at 9:15 and 11 a.m., the 45-member Wesley Singers will perform a new musical play "Open The Doors And See."

Written and directed by Nardin Park Minister of Music, Melvin Rookus, it combines humor and honesty as it attempts to build an appreciation of what life in a busy church is all about.

The nine original songs and dialogue will help these elementary-school youngsters send a message.

At 7:30 p.m., the 90-voice combined Chancel and Sanctuary choirs will present one oratorio, "Elijah" by Felix Mendelssohn. Depicting the great deeds and miracles performed by the prophet.

Getting ready: Melvin Rookus (left), minister of music at Nardin Park Methodist Church, and Paul Beck, bass soloist, prepare to perform "Elijah."

Below are highlights from the agendas of government meetings this week. All meetings are open to the public.
