

Homeward bound

Returning Rev.: The Rev. Bob Barnes returns to his home church, St. Paul's Lutheran, 20805 Middlebelt, Farmington Hills, to deliver the sermon 1 p.m. Sunday, May 31. Barnes, a 1956 graduate of Linnia Clarenceville and pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Stevens Point, Wis., will help his home church celebrate its 100th anniversary.

Stations pump gas for handicappers

More than 1,100 service stations in Michigan, with 137 in Oakland County including 11 in Farmington and Farmington Hills, are pumping gasoline for handicappers at their self-service prices.

The stations are listed in a new "Pump Guide," published by members of the petroleum industry. It was presented May 18 during "The Event," a statewide conference in Lansing, attended by more than 1,500 handicappers.

The Pump Guide includes the names, brand names, addresses and telephone numbers of stations in 81 of the 83 counties that have volunteered to pump gasoline for handicappers. Each listing includes the hours when service is available if the hours are limited.

Participating stations will post a window decal, showing the traditional handicapper symbol and the hours when service is available.

The Guide was published in cooperation with the Michigan Commission on Handicapper Concerns, the state agency that advocates on behalf of all handicappers.

Farmington-area stations are: Liebleich's 9 & Middlebelt Marathon, 29450 W. Nine Mile; Mobil Oil Corp., 33350 W. 12 Mile; "Ole" Toll Shell Service, Guy DiPlacido, 37375 Grand River; Bolla's Marathon, John Bolla, 27745 Orchard Lake; Grand River MiniMart, (Cliff) Mohamed Nasser, 29024 Grand River; Jerry's Marathon, Jerry Savoy, 38171 W. 10 Mile Road; Jerry's Shell, Jerry Marx, 37500 12 Mile Road; Orchard 14 Car Wash (Shell), Jan Williamson, 30980 Orchard Lake; Pann's 10 & Orchard Lake Shell, I.
