tries in give every student it series of self-confidence.

"There are two kinds of people in the world: those who believe they can strine, and those who don't. Garrian observed. My Joh is to take those who don't believe they can strine, and show them that they can. You can't teach people to write, all a writing teacher can do is crede an atmosphere where people can first themselves." "She has a tate ability to see each

"She has a rare ability tir see each student as an individual person. She never lets them get lost in her class," vant Protessor Jane Briggs Banting, share of Oakland Universi-ty Supertment of rhistoria; commu-nication and journalism.

Garcia will be taking a subbatical Garcia will be taking a subbatical next year, so she can "go upstuirs and write a lot." She predicts it will be her hast subbatical; she plans to retire from teaching and give the Leyend of St. William a sense of clo-sure.

Garcia, of course, doesn't believe in the Legend. She instead attrib-utes her successes to the people who gave her the confidence she now tries to instill in her students.
