There are 400 employment openings at the new Somerset Collection store, which has already received 3,000 resumes.

Marilyn Connor, who was Hudson's public relations director, has taken the celebrated position of public relations manager at Neiman Marcus.

International Dinner Dance

Sandi and Peter Burton hosted the beneficiary soiree at their sprawling Bloomfield Hills home Sunday, May 31, for the International Visitors Council.

Peter Burton is the Farmington Hills developer of Arbutum (12 Mile and Drake roads), one of Michigan's largest office parks along with Farmington Hills' Copper Creek. Incidentally, the Arbutum is the new home of the Metro Music Cafe.

More than 70 guests attended the ambassador's cocktail party, enjoying the Burton's beautiful garden and bon vivants prepared by Unique Restaurant Corp. (Dell Unique of West Bloomfield, Plaza Dell in Southfield, Morels of Bingham Farms and Sebastian's of Troy).

West Bloomfield present were committee member Aggie Moldman with dashing escort and tennis enthusiast Leon Bramley, Shirley and Frank Piku, and Sandy and Jim Mueller. International Dinner Dance co-chairwomen are Judie Sherman and Susan Lanciault.

Coming Up

The fifth season of the highly successful "Musical Fest" program includes the "Tokyo Toccata" at the Southfield high-rise residence of accomplished host John Bloom.

The menu will feature Sweet and Sour Cucumber and Abalone Salad, Cobancho (squash stew), Chicken Hekka-Sukiyaki style, all prepared by Japanese chefs. DSO violinist Paul and Karen Wingert will be among the guests and will perform after the meal.

Cost is $50. Call 644-2131 or 851-6031 for reservations.
