FAITH CONDUCTS A YEAR 'ROUND SCHOOL FOR CHILDREN

In some school districts, the problem of overcrowded classrooms has been alleviated by a year 'round rotation system, in which some children will spend the summer, or most of it, in school. However, when they do have their vacation, they should not be allowed to forget such things as manners, discipline, and above all, faith. The latter is especially important at this time, because regardless of what the schools do, the Sunday schools are closed for the summer; and this makes it easy for the children to forget what they learned during the rest of the year. Faith is a year 'round curriculum, so whether the children are at home or in school, they should be taken to the House of Worship, where they will be reminded of it.

We can't give our children the future...but we can give them the present

Kathleen Norris
