Microwave malfunction

Kitchen damaged: Farmington Hills firefighters estimate damage to this house on Glen Orchard at $50,000 after a microwave malfunctioned, setting the cabinets around it on fire Friday. "There was quite a bit of heat," said Peter Baldwin, deputy fire chief. The homeowner had left for about 15 minutes and returned to find the cabinets on fire and the house full of smoke. The stove also was damaged. The homeowner used a dry chemical extinguisher to put out the fire. When firefighters arrived the area was still smoldering.
