Candidates split on abortion

Left, center, right. Those were the positions, literally and philosophically, the three GOP candidates of the U.S. 11th Congressional District took on the abration issue. The candidates expressed their views on abortion and a variety of other topics at a meet the candidates night aponsored by the litraingham and Bhoonfield Republican Women's Club Wednesday at the Bloomfield-Township Hali, Candidates Alice Gilbert, David Inaigman and Joseph Knollenberg.

Knollenberg said simply, "I'm pro-life, I favor adoption over abortion."

Hanigman noted that it was ap-propriate that he was seated be-tween the other candidates because his view is more middle of the road.
