

Carrier Night at the Zoo

Join the Fun!

Carriers get to go to the Zoo.

And that's just one of the things they get to do. When you're an Observer & Eccentric carrier you get to compete for prizes—you even get a chance to win a 10-speed bike! Everything depends on how well you handle your route, take care of the money you collect, and treat your customers. It also depends on how well you accept the responsibility of delivering papers to the people on your route twice each week.

And you have fun, too.

Like this trip to the zoo. You get to invite your family to go with you. And they keep the Zoo open just for us so that it's a really "cool" evening with Moslem Highland Shriners and their lady clown unit, all the neat animals plus good stuff to eat.

Maybe you should think about being an Observer & Eccentric carrier, if you aren't one already.

If you are, tell your friends to call us so that maybe they can be one, too.
