Botsford Picks President

Mrs. Gertrude Walsh was installed as president at a recent meeting of Clarenceville's Botsford Elementary School PTA.

Mother vice president is Mrs. Edna Muelrath; father vice president, Ron Hamel; secretary, Mrs. Carole Houston; and treasurer, Mrs. Joyce Reed.

Service, library and safety awards were presented to children.

At the recent Botsford pancake supper and bazaar a bike was won by Dick Wilson who was asked to guess the number of beans in a container.

5 Bandmen Go To Camp

Five Clarenceville High School bandmen have been awarded two-week summer scholarships to music camps.

Attending a session at the National Music Camp at Interlochen will be Jim Estep, French horn, and Tony Bango, cornet.

Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp, located in the northwestern portion of the lower peninsula, will be attended by Tom Sydor, trumpet; Dan Beerbolm, clarinet; and Darryl Turk, trombone. Turk was recipient of the Herschel Ping memorial award.
