LORENE GREEN

Dear Ms. Green, I would be interested in having my handwriting analyzed through the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

I am an 83-year-old female and am right-handed.

Thank you, D.P., Plymouth

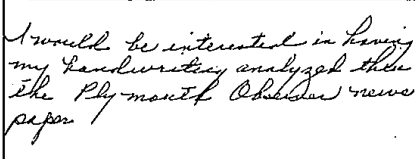

This is the handwriting of an 83-year-old woman with a marvelous sense of humor. My own love of humor quickly drew me to your letter. Not only are you humorous but you also are a good conversationalist with interests that reach beyond the mundane. These qualities will endear you to any person or group.

A most delightful woman shines through this handwriting like a bright light. To be gracious and express warmth comes naturally to you. I suspect you have spent your entire lifetime helping other people.

You are people-oriented and are at home in the company of others. People quickly sense this about you and in turn relate to you. And yet you also need time to be by yourself to recharge your emotional batteries. You do not like people prying into your personal affairs.

dissatisfied with some aspect of your life. Although I am not able to determine exactly what it is, I don't think you will let it get the best of you.

Those long lower loops that tangle with the lines below suggest that you are restless and need activity and variety. At times you become so involved you have difficulty keeping things sorted out. I suspect this is when the tail of procrastination I ve takes place. Great inner strength and determination are two more positive qualities in your makeup. Nothing is going to keep you down for long, my dear.

Although you are a little sensitive to criticism of your personal appearance, your affinity for fun and laughter does not allow you to dwell on it. You probably pick up an interesting book and get involved with the story and characters.

p.m. Saturday, Oct. 10, at the William Beaumont Hospital, Family Practice Center, 44201 Dequindre Road, Troy.

Call 1-800-633-7377 for an appointment. Early diagnosis and treatment are the keys to survival of this second-leading cause of cancer death in men. Beaumont is offering the free screening during the upcoming national celebration of Prostate Cancer Awareness Week.
