

Writer feels need to be in control of her feelings phology and once had the handwriting of my two brothers and I analyzed. Unfortunately, I was very young at the time and don't remember what was said. Another time, some robberies occurred at a store my father owned. He had a graphologist analyze the handwriting of a person recently hired. He was told the man had a history of dishonesty and was likely to steal. My father fired the new employee and the robberies stopped. At any rate, his experiences encouraged me to try writing you out of curiosity. And I would appreciate any feedback you have to offer.

Control is the keyword in today's analysis. Our writer feels the need to be in control of feelings and judgments at all times. She is not given to emotional scenes nor snap judgments. She is inclined to stand back and assess a situation before involving herself. She believes in the motto "Look before you leap."

She has a deep seated penchant for privacy. Rarely does she reveal anything she wishes to keep confidential. I believe her confidants are carefully selected and limited to a very small number.

Friendships do not come easily to our writer. She appears to hold others at arm's length. She needs time and space for herself and probably enjoys periods of quiet and/or meditation. In the beauty of nature, she finds relaxation and pleasure.

This is an intelligent woman. She is curious and analytical about many things. She probably enjoys readings, often satisfying her curiosity in this way.

Her concentration is well developed. She likes to zero in on one thing at a time and can focus her intellectual energy totally on the task at hand. She has also been blessed with intuition which she can call upon when logic and facts do not furnish the answers.

She is cognizant of the impression she makes on others. A strong sense of pride conditions her work. She is well organized and capable. When faced with the need to make decisions, however, she can be indecisive at times.

Authority figures can be difficult for her to accept. Perhaps she experienced too much of this while growing up, so I can't help wondering if she is aware of her own need to dominate others. Sarcasm is her tool. She seems to feel

I'm in my mid-fifties and right-handed. Generally when I write, I print. But you wanted samples of both so I'll start with what my handwriting looks like. My father had a great deal of faith in the best defense is an offense. Does she feel some lack of nurturing in her early life? An aesthetic sense has a way of conditioning almost all she does. Her home as well as appearance would be neat and attractive, possibly more plain than ornate.

If you would like to have your handwriting analyzed in this newspaper, write to Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist at 30251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Age, handedness and full signature are helpful and objective feedback is always welcome. If you have two different styles of handwriting please include samples of each.

Two signs of a valuable employee.

When your employees train with the National Guard and Reserve they learn to be better decision makers, better team players, and better leaders. Please keep this in mind the next time they need time off work to serve. When they come back they'll be better prepared for the work they do for you. And that's the sign of a good employee.
