Programming: an asset for voters

CABLE CONNECTION

If you ever wanted to be informed, tune in to Channel 12. One feels one should be involved with their community; it seems funny to sit down in front of the television of the television to experience this. But you can.

Local political programming has been the type of show that kept our studies hepping for the balanced from a town hell oncept to balanced round town hell oncept to balanced round town hell oncept to balanced and the programming has been the type of show that kept our studies hepping for the balanced from a town hell oncept to balanced and the programming has been the type of show that kept our studies he programming has been the pr

Local crafts show to feature holiday items

More than 115 artisans will show off their work on Saturday, Oct. 24, at The Farmington Com-munity Center's 20th annual Arts and Crafts Show in Building H (the gymnasium) at the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College in Farmington Hills.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $1 per person, and parking is free.

The juried show is one of the mainstay fundraisers for The Community Center. Center officials say they expect a large crowd.

The show will feature new and returning artists. Favorite items will include jewelry, quiltings and weavings, woodworkings, ceramic, fiber and fine art. Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas pieces will be available, as well.

Arnold Home resident, Ethel Smith

"I'm not having any trouble meeting people here. I participate in the bymn sing, the Sunday service, bingo, cards, and music groups. They have movies, shopping trips, even a wine and cheese party once a month. The staff, they're all so very helpful. My life here is fine."
