at 8 p.m. June 21 on an off-street parking variance to make possible conversion of the old National Bank of Detroit building at Grand River and Farmington Rd. into a mini-mall.

Site plans have been approved by the City of Farmington Planning Commission, and Monday night the city council set June 21 as date for a hearing on allowing the parking variance.

PAUL BARON of Livonia plans to invest $100,000 to renovate the building, which has been vacant for most of the past four years. It will house a number of small specialty shops such as a tobacco shop, leather goods, candle-making, candy shop, wine shop or millinery. Leasing agent is Robert Beauchamp of Farmington. There would be 4,500 square feet of usable floor area with some shops being as small as 100 square feet on the lower, first floor and mezzanine level. Baron plans to install a new heating and air conditioning plant.

The building, if used for commercial purposes, would require 30 parking spaces by ordinance. The building has credit for 2 parking spaces in the municipal off-street parking lot and Baron says the mini-mall will attract pedestrian traffic with customer cars being parked in the two municipal lots within 400 feet of the building.

Baron may also need a variance on requirements for loading and unloading space. He is negotiating with owners of an adjoining building and hopes a solution on loading can be reached before the June 21 hearing.

IN OTHER action, the council voted to contribute

$600 more this year for the salary of Farmington District Judge Michael J. Hand in a move to raise the judge's salary from $27,500 to $32,000. The $32,000 salary is now contingent upon Farmington Township voting to provide an extra $2,400 to Hand. If granted, this will be the first pay raise the judge has received since taking office in 1968.

Prompting the hike was state legislation raising the maximum salary for district judges throughout Michigan to $32,000.

The state has agreed to raise its present contribution of $18,000 to $19,500 leaving $3,000 for the township and city to pay. The city and township share the local portion of the judge's salary on a pro-rata basis based on total assessment of each community.

THE COUNCIL also reappointed William Burke, Mrs. Charlotte Bruce and Richard Tupper to three-year terms on the planning commission and appointed Mayor Wilbur Brotherton to the election commission.

At the June 21 meeting, the council will consider reappointments to the beautification committee and zoning board of appeals.

Swim At Mercy Pool
A summer swimming program ranging from tiny tot to competitive swimming will be offered starting June 14 at Mercy Center, 11 Mile at Middle Belt in Farmington. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Sally Prior, swimming chairman for the Michigan Amateur Athletic Union who was named Michigan's "coach of the year" in 1967-68.

Lessons for tiny tots ages four-six will be from 11:30 a.m. to noon on Mondays and Fridays. Classes for advanced tiny tots will be from 11:30 a.m. to noon on Wednesdays. Lessons for children seven-11 years old will be 12:15-1 p.m. Thursdays.

An aqua gym and swim program for mothers and 12-17 year old daughters will be from 11:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. or 7:30-9 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Ladies "friday cal" lessons will last from 12:15-1 p.m. Tuesdays.

Recreational swimming will be offered from noon-4:30 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and from 3-4:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Mercy Center Aquatic Club is open to deep water swimmers from six-17 years old. Competitive strokes will be taught and perfected and speed and endurance improved. The new club is affiliated with the MAAU and its members will compete in meets around the state.

Citizens Help Curb Break-Ins

FARMINGTON
Farmington Township Police Chief Irving Yakes says cooperation between residents and police is paying big dividends in the apprehension of breaking and entering suspects.

Yakes said phone calls from residents about suspicious persons have resulted in the arrest of eight persons and closing of 209 breaking cases in the past two months.

THE DEPARTMENT began receiving phone calls from residents, the chief adds, after an article was printed in the Farmington Enterprise & Observer warning residents to be alert for suspicious behavior of burglars working in the area.

The chief, in that article, cautioned residents that burglars were knocking on doors and asking for a fictitious name of a person or street if the homeowner answered. If no one answered the door, the burglar would then enter the home.

A number of residents have been calling the police when persons have come to their doors asking for someone who didn't live there, Yakes said, and police detective have been getting results.

"It is gratifying to know crime can be deterred when citizens and police cooperate," the chief said.

FOR FARMINGTON BOARD OF EDUCATION Dr. MERVYN ROSS summarizes

Dear Parents and Friends:

Election Day, June 14, is not far off.

I, too, am a concerned parent of 4 children in the Farmington School System.

I hope you have had an opportunity to study some of the crucial issues at stake which involve each of us and our children.

I have been deeply concerned at many Board of Education Meetings in the past 2 years that a voice "on the other side of the table" is not always heard. This is one reason I have elected to run for the Board of Education.

I ask you to consider my priorities and with them my candidacy. Specific areas which concern me include:

COMMUNICATION: We must maintain and improve relations between the Parents, Students, Teachers, Administration and the Board.

CURRICULUM CONTENT: Intelligent, dedicated Teachers must be well-versed and comfortable in the subjects they present. Parents' interest and enthusiasm is vital. Our aim must be the development of the whole child, comfortable with himself in today's society.

SCHOOL FINANCES: We must seek means other than higher property taxes at the local level for our prime base. Hopefully — according to Governor Milliken — this will be the last such millage necessary.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING WE CAN DO FOR AND WITH OUR CHILDREN TOGETHER ANYTHING THAT WE SEE EYE TO EYE ON — ANYTHING THAT WILL RELIEVE RATHER THAN WIDEN THE "GENERATION GAP" — IT MUST BE WHAT WE CAN DO TO MAINTAIN ENRICHMENT AND POSITIVE ATTITUDES TOWARDS OUR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION.

Respectfully
Mervyn Ross, M.D.
