Courage Cards feature Hills artist

Rose Marie Starke's oil painting titled "Tree of the Season" is featured in the 1992 Courage Cards Collection. This is the first year that Starke of Farmington Hills has been featured in the collection. Courage Cards are original-art holiday greeting cards that have been sold for 34 years to benefit Courage Center services for children and adults with physical disabilities and sensory impairments. "Tree of the Season" is a contemporary representation of an old Holiday tradition — the Christmas tree. Starke's painting features a marble effect of different shades of green and blue to create a tree that has a texture and personality. "I love doing design work and I love anything related to nature," said Starke. "I feel that 'Tree of the Season' incorporates both loves." Her painting was selected from over 1,500 entries in a nationwide

More Detroit suburban travelers

When you want to reach Detroit's affluent suburban travelers, you want to advertise in SPRING.

Because SPRING's audited circulation of 728,609 more than doubles the suburban daily circulation of either The Detroit News (288,960) or Free Press (358,553).

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.

- ▶ 146,100 more suburban vacationers than the daily News (55,400 more than the Free Press).
- ▶ 91,800 more suburban purchasers of airline tickets than The News (9,700 more than the Free Press).
- ▶ 80,700 (and 7900) more suburban business travelers.

More suburban boat owners, travel agent customers...

Simply put, one order in SPRING delivers more. Shouldn't you be advertising in SPRING more? To get all the facts, call your SPRING representative.
