

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

AUTO THEFTS
A 1991 Cutlass Olds was reported stolen Nov. 11 from the driveway of a Farmington Road resident, according to a Farmington Hills police report. The car was recovered later that day in Detroit by Detroit police.

THEFTS
JW's Saloon on 12 Mile and Orchard Lake reported Nov. 11 that a bubble gum machine valued at $300 had been stolen from the building's front entrance, a police report said.
In an unrelated incident, a $200 homemade steel gun cabinet was reported stolen Nov. 11 from an Orchard Lake resident.

About $1,100 worth of air conditioning units were reported stolen Nov. 12 from a partially constructed building at Courtyard Manor on Farmington Road.

ARRESTED
A 34-year-old Detroit man was arrested Nov. 11 on two misdemeanor warrants out of Plymouth Township and Detroit after police stopped the man's 1985 Mercury Topaz for a broken windshield.

In another case, a 21-year-old Dearborn Heights man was arrested Nov. 12 for soliciting without a permit in the Berry Hill area. The man, wearing a denim jacket and a black felt cap, told police that he was attempting to collect funds for Michigan Environmental Defense out of East Lansing. The report said the man had also used profanity when a resident refused to give money.

Also, a 19-year-old Redford man and two male juveniles, a 17-year-old from Detroit and a 16-year-old from Dearborn Heights, were arrested Nov. 12 when a Hills officer found marijuana and drug paraphernalia in their car. The report said the 1987 Plymouth Horizon was stopped on 12 Mile for having no license plate.
Two Farmington Hills men, ages 21 and 22, were arrested Nov. 12 for narcotics possession, a police report said. The men were sitting in a 1985 Toyota van in a parking lot on Eight Mile and Orchard Lake.

Center evacuated after bomb threat

Ameritech Mobile Communications on Northwestern Highway sounded like a man in his 40s. Earlier that day, an Ameritech employee received a call from a customer with a delinquent account, the report said. The customer told the employee that, "You don't know who you're dealing with," and that he had worked as a demolitions expert in Vietnam.
The office was evacuated and other companies in the Tri Atrio Building were notified of the bomb threat. Police dogs searched the ice locations since job layoffs began early this week, a company official, but found nothing.
The receptionist who received the call told police that the caller reported a bomb threat Nov. 12.

Man robbed in his car

A 40-year-old Southfield man was the victim of an armed robbery late Wednesday night in the parking lot of the 8-Beech shopping mall at Eight Mile and Beech roads in Southfield.
The victim told police he drove into the mall lot shortly after 10:30 p.m. and as he was getting out of his car a man with a handgun came up beside him and ordered him to get back behind the wheel. The robber got into the back seat and forced the victim to drive behind the Kmart store where took $110 from him. The robber fled on foot with the money.
