ON THE AGENDA

Below are highlights from the agendas of meetings this week, All meetings are open to the public.

Farmington Public Schools
Lowis Schulman Conter
Sp.m. Thesday, Dec. 1
Agenda Items include:
B Report from the student roundtable representative.
B Items from the superintendent
— YMCA Partnership, for Kids,
'Athletic Study Session and Anjual Contract for Auditors.

nual Contract for Auditors.

Extens from the Treasurer —

Expenditures and a resolution regarding twice-a-year tax collection.

■ Reports from board committees

■ Reports from board committees
■ Unfinished business which includes second reading (adoption) of prohibition of smoking in public schools; personnel policy regarding hiring of relatives, community service and political activities; substitute teachers, etc.

Farmington Hills Planning Commission Farmington Hills Administra-tion Building 31555 11 Mile Road Thursday, Dec. 3. For information on sgenda items, call 473-9543.

OBITUARIES

ESTHER K. DEVLIN

ESTHER K. DEVLIM
Mrs. Devlin, 92, of Fermington
Hills died Nov. 26 in Huron Valley Hospital.
Born in Freemont, Ohio, Mrs.
Devlin was a homeranker.
Survivors include her sons,
William and Robert, brother, Nelson Tucker, eister, Dorothy Gildenmeister, siz grandchildren and.
14 great-grandchildren.
Services were Nov. 28 at the tery, Birmingham.

Harrison hosts winter concert

The concert band, symphony band, orchestra and choir of Har-ison High School will perform a variety of seasonal music at the annual Winter Concert in the Harrison High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Doc. 8. One of the orchestra's selections, "Four Royal Dances" is the piece they practiced on "String Day" with professional musicians.

clons.
270 Farmington students who play string instruments participated in the day with the professionals who are all Farmington

McCabe Funeral Home, Farming-ton Hills, with the Rev. Mark Summers and the Rev. William Holmes of North Farmington Community Church officiating. Burial was in Acacia Park Ceme-

Memorials may be made to North Farmington Community Church, 32500 W. 13 Mile, Farm-ington Hills 48334.

Bruce Smith and Ron Fischer of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra worked with the high schould inclinists, Paul Wingert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra worked with the celiest, Larry Hutchinson of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra worked with the bases and Bob Culver of the University of Michigan worked with the violists.

All concerts are open to the public. There is a nominal charge and free admission for senior citi-zens. Harrison High School is at 29995 W. 12 Mile Road.

WHERE TO CATCH , jazzercise FITRESS CENTES YOUR NEIGHBORS Now Open at the Orchard 12 Plaza In Farmington Hills. 3 NW corner of 12 Mile and Orchard Lake Road.

call 489-9566 50% OFF BUY 8 CLASSES Get 8 Classes free

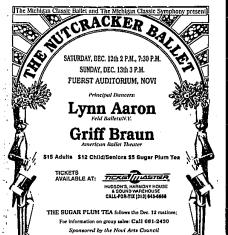

New students only.
Offer expires 12/31/92
Call for participating location near your

Arthritis: Today Joseph J. Weiss, M.D. Rheumalology 18829 Farmington Road Livonia, Michigan 48152 Phone: 478-7860

RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS CAN BE A PAIN IN THE NECK.

un many know that theoretical arthritis informes the joints of the hands, wrists, aboulders, and then.

Je and then the proper than the

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington area police incidents fire calls and court cases report-ed during the past week.

E ACCIDENT

Farmington Hills Police said three people received minor injuries after the car they were in was hit by another at the intersection of 13 Mile and Farmington Road Nov. 24 at about 7 p.m.

Officers said a 1887 Toyota, heading east on 13 Mile, attempted a left turn onto Farmington when it was hit by a 1988 Buick heading west on 13 Mile. The light was green at the time.

The driver and passenger in the discount of the Toyota was ticketed for falling to yield the right of way. That driver and the two passen; gars were taken to Bettieford flosping was were taken to Bettieford flosping for treatment of minor injurity.

FIRE

Fire Farmington Hills firefighters put out a fire at 23540 Newell Circle East caused by a faulty fire-

who are hearing impaired, said
Deputy Fire Chief Pete Baldwin.
Damage was confined to one room
and was minor, Baldwin said.
He said residents should have their fire places inspected before building fires in them this winter.

**BASAULT AND BATTERY**
Farmington police ticketed a 17-year-old woman, who admitted punching another 17-year-old female in Farmington High School's front lobby Nov. 18. The pair apparently had previous verbail disagreement.

bal disagreement. TAVERN BREAK-IN

bal disagreement.

B TAVERN BREAK-IN Farmington Hills Police said
someone broke into Shot's Tavern
at 30359 10 Mile Road between 4
am. and 11:20 am. Nov. 22. A telephone line was cut and $1,090
in cash was stolen. Police are inveatigating.

B PHONE SCAM
Farmington Hills Police are investigating a possible scam that netted a salesman about $20,000 over a four-month period beginning in May. Police think the scam could have been going on fora year.

cle East caused by a faulty fireplace.

A deaf man, who was house sitting, contacted a neighbor who in turn called firefighters at 11:56 pm. Nov. 24. The fire was confined to the spaces above the fireplace. Firefighters believe a park from the fire place ignighted material between the exterior of the fire place and the chimney/heart
acrea where a crack was discoventered and police are con
the firefighter where the place is the place and the type recommended to warn people

THE TS

TS

THE TS scam could have been going on for a year.

A salesman from a phone store on Northwestern Highway in Fermington Hills is being investigated on a charge that he set up false account at his firm for Sears Roebuck. The man is accused of working with a part-time sears employee to sell the phones for $750 each. The Sears employee has been fired and police are continuing the investigation.

THETTS

A Farmington Hills map.

Berrywood, then returned about a week later to find the furniture missing. The man told Farming-ton Hills Pelice he left the conde Nov. 9 and returned Nov. 17 to find a double dresser, chest of drawers, double bed, dinning room set, sofs and coffee table had been removed. The man sold the furniture, valued in excess of $1,000, had been included in the condo purchase.

Police also report the theft of two pair of glasses from a 1989 Jeep, parked in a garage at 2338 N. Stockton, and a bicycle, also from the garage.

Jeen, parked in a garage at 23338 N. Stockton, and a bleycle, also from the garage.

The theft occurred between 7 p.m. Friday and 8:15 a.m. Saturday. The solen perscription glasses were worth $300, the sunglasses were worth $300, the sunglasses were worth $300, the sunglasses were worth $300. The garage was unlocked and there was no damage to the Jeep. The owner told police he saw the blke in the front yard of a residence on Fink Street. Police are investigating.

A woman reported the theft of her purse from a car packed at 36202 Hardenburg, Farmington Hills, between 11 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. Saturday.

The purse contained $400 in cash, as well as credit cards and checks. The car, a 1988 Pontiae Grand Am, had been parked in the driveway.

Two wire wheel covers and hubs, valued at $150, were stolen from a 1987 Oldsmobile parked at the Kendallusod Apartments at 7592 Kingsgate Way in Formington Hills on Nov. 17 at about noon.

A Taylor man who rented a atrecth limosine for a wedding, discovered that a portable telephone, valued at $900, had been stolen from the car's trunk during the ceremony. The thoft took place between 0:15 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. at 28:50 Grayling, Parmington Hills.

Someone went to great lengths to stay warm. A woman's black leather coat, valued at $400 was taken from an unlocked red Susuki Samural in the parking for fifty of the coat of the stay warm. A woman's block leather coat, valued at $400 was taken from an unlocked red Susuki Samural in the parking for fifty of the same leation from a 1900 red Cao between 12:45 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. Tuesday. A green men's jack the same leation from a 1900 red Cao between 12:45 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. Tuesday. Both vehicles were unlocked.

Someone allegedly stole a wedding ring, valued at $170, from a coin tray landie a 1990 Taurus at Jax Car Wash in Fermington, according to a report filed Nov. 21.

WANDALISM

Farmington Hills Police say a large chunk of plastic shattered the sun roof of a 1989 Fed Probe while it was at the Amoco station at 37410 Grand River near Helsted at 3:25 a.m. Sunday.

Damage to the car was $250 and the driver gave police a description of a cert ath shad been at the station during the time of the incident.

A resident at 76918 Brancheser in Farmington Hills thought cident.

A resident at 75918 Branchaster in Farmington Hills thought that her 7-by-4 foot window had been damaged because of a storm on Nov. 17.

Sunday 12 noon-6 p.m.