As you truly interested in studying the Bible and that you can obey God more perfectly, then you long to lay down the great God who created us and sent his son, Jesus Christ, into the world to save sinners, then you are the ones who hunger and thirst after righteousness for they shall be filled (Matt 5:13). If you long to know God more fully and to obey him more perfectly, come join those who share the same desires.

FAITH FINDS MORE TO THE NEW YEAR THAN JUST PARTYING

The thought of New Year's Eve usually evokes images of parties, family get-togethers or a night on the town. However, it's a time not just for getting all dressed up for the fun and festivity, but also for some sentimental reflection, climaxed at the stroke of midnight when the calendar turns. It's a time for looking back over the year just concluded, to review its events and our accomplishments, if any, it's also a time for looking ahead, to the 12 months that stretch out before us, and the things we hope to accomplish as they parade by. The new year signifies a new beginning, and the best place to receive some guidelines for it is our House of Worship, where the lessons there will help us look forward to experiencing a year filled with real meaning and purpose.

Every man regards his own life as the New Year's Duc of time.
— Jean Paul Richter
