nounced the addition of four new designers to the Gorman's design team.

Two of the designers, Judy Johns and Cathi Waun, joined the Southfield staff. The other two, Kendra Craig and Jill Howe, joined the Troy staff.

Johns has more than a decade of interior design experience, the result of her tenures with Suni-land Furniture and Robert Joseph Interiors in Houston. She is a University of Detroit graduate, and a resident of Lincoln Park.

Waun previously served as an interior designer for Scott Shuptine in Novi and Baker Street Interiors in Livonia. A Walled Lake resident, she is a Western Michigan University graduate.

Craig recently conducted training programs for Workbench, where she also served as a buyer and manager, as well as a managing partner. Craig also was a regional manager for Domain, a New Jersey-hased furniture chain.

How has employed her interior design skills with Jacobson's in Birmingham, as well as Interiors by Binder in Boca Raton, Pla. Alterning ham resident, she received her design training at Madiston.
