

New Cranbrook faculty to speak

A lecture series, "Fresh A.I.R.: Cranbrook's Newest Artists In Residence," celebrates the new women faculty at the Cranbrook Academy of Art.

The series, on the first three Tuesdays in February, is presented by the Cranbrook Academy of Art and Museum Women's Committee.

It is an opportunity to meet with these artists in residence and learn about their work.

Cost is $20 for the series of three lectures, or $8 for each talk. Reservations, at $12 each, are necessary for the luncheon that will take place after the lecture Feb. 16. Checks should be made payable to the CAAWC and mailed by Jan. 26 to Miami Connelly, 6180 W. Surrey, Bloomfield Hills 48301. For more information, call Marcia Wiltshire at 338-2221 or Connelly at 851-8606.

The lectures will take place 11 a.m. to noon in the deSalle Auditorium at the museum, 1221 N. Woodward between Lone Pine and Long Lake roads in Bloomfield Hills. Coffee will be served before each session at 10:30 a.m.

The schedule is: Heather McGill of the sculpture department, Feb. 2; Beverly Flehman of the painting department, Feb. 9; and Jill Stoenburg-Arkman of the metalworking department, Feb. 16.
