PERSONAL SCENE line never closes—

after all, you never know when the right person may have left a message for you!

Jon Bon Jovi celebrated his 31st birthday at The Palace of Auburn Hills on March 2 with three birthday parties, thousands of fans, a band, a cake, and an anatomically correct doll.

Bon Jovi appeared startled but rebounded quickly after the life-size doll was thrown on stage. During the remainder of the show he received the usual crop of concert gifts and a card congratulating him on his wife's pregnancy. Even his band helped with the birthday celebration by stopping mid-song during "Shout" to play the Beatles' "Birthday."

In return for the gifts, Bon Jovi extended his group's show by including its first hit "Runaway" and covers of "Get By With A Little Help From My Friends" and the aforementioned "Shout." The close to two-hour show ran the gamut of Bon Jovi's music career.

Radio station WLZZ is seeking music by local musicians to include in a new show called "Home Cookin'."
