Firefighters extinguished the fire in the master bedroom, but there was smoke damage to the entire house. There were no injuries. Firefighters found the hydrant just east of the house was not operating.

Redford woman faces trial on armed robbery charge

Jennifer Marie Keeton, 29, was bound over to circuit court on a charge of armed robbery Monday.

Keeton, a Redford resident, faces up to life in prison on the charge. She was arrested shortly after 3 a.m. on March 17 by Livonia police after they were given a description of a dark colored Plymouth Horizon and a robbery suspect. The robbery took place at the Dunkin' Donuts on Eight Mile and Grand River in Farmington Hills.

Officers found a .22-caliber rifle, a wad of cash and a hat that matched a description of the robber's in Keeton's car.

Keeton waived her exam Monday. Judge Marla Parker continued bond for Keeton at $10,000 cash. No date has been set for Keeton's circuit court arraignment, and she remains in the Oakland County Jail.

My bank just advertised that they'll remember your name.

I wish they'd remember mine ...and learn something about my business.

Somebody said my bank wants to be like Madison Bank. Come to think of it, I want to be at Madison Bank.

Maybe you should switch to a bank that really wants to be your bank.
