War's terrible toll on 'The Class of '61'

ABC film joins impressive roster

By Steven Alan McGaw

The land is scarred, ravaged. Homes and churches are destroyed, shops are looted and burned. Works of art are lost forever to senseless violence, and cemeteries are glutted with the newly turned graves of those lucky enough to receive prop-those lucky enough to receive proper burial.

Sadly, these are the familiar consequences of war. But war's highest toll is always its human cost and it is from a nation's young population that the greatest number of lives are always lost. It's an old idea - and a bitter tuth. that old men and a bitter truth - that old men send young ones to fight the wars they wish to wage.

And like an individual, a nation's darkest hour comes when it is at war with itself. Such a time came for the United States in the years 1861 to 1865, the period of conflict and horror known as the Civil War. and norror known as the CUN WAR. Slavery was not the only issue -some historians say states' rights was bigger - but the moral weight of that subject overshadowed every-thing else. On Monday, April 12, ABC presents Class of '61, adding another title to the distinguished list of films about the Civil War that includes Gone With The Wind, The Red Badge of Courage, Friendly Persuasion, and Glory. Produced by Steven Spielberg's Ambilia Entertainment, the powerful made-fortelevision movie focuses on the early days of the war and how it affectly days of the war and how it affected the young men in the 1861 graduating class at West Point.

Tensions were aiready high at the prestigious military academy by the spring of 1861. The seceded South-ern states had announced the formaern states had announced the forma-tion of the Confederacy on Feb. 8, the Union stood firm in its positions, and both sides were readying troops for the inevitable conflict.

Still, the sons of Northern senators and abolitionists sat side by side with the sons of Southern planters in the classrooms of West planters in the classrooms of West Point. Some of them, like young Shelby Peyton (Dan Futterman) of Virginia, felt deeply torn between staying the final two months until graduation, or leaving immediately to assume a place in the Confeder-ate army.

tack on Fort Sumter. The war had begun and student and teacher allke left the safety and civility of the classroom for the rage and carnage of the battlefield.

of the battleneta.
Futterman offers a fine portrayal as Shelby, whose showy loyalty to the Confederacy seems at odds with the warmth he privately shares with his father's slaves, Lucius and Lavihis father's slaves, Lucius and Lavinia, powerfully played by Andre Braugher and Penny Johnson. Clive Owen is dashing as battle-hungry Irishman Devin O'Neil and Joshua Lucas is winning in his portrayal as the young George Custer. Len Carlou, Dana Ivey and Christien Anholt all lend able support.

Class of '61 features a fine script

Emprey and Banbody. Award

by Emmy and Peabody Award winner Jonas McCord and skillful direction by eight-time Emmy re-ciplent Gregory Hoblit. Noted histo-rian Shelby Foote served as a con-

Cable / TV Weekly

is published every Monday by the Suburban Communications Corporation, 36231 Schoolcraft Read, Livenia, MI 40150.
All advertising published in the Colle! TV Weekly is subject to the conditions stated in the applicable rate card, copies of which are available from the Sales Manager at Specialty Publications, 24445 Drake Rd, Farmington Hills, MI 48335 or call 418-5160. Suburban Communications Corporation reserves the right not to accept an advertiser's order.

the right not to accept an advertiser's order.

Adtakers have no authority to bind Cable ITV Werkly and only publication of an advertisement shall constitute final acceptance of the advertiser's order. The information in Cable ITV Werkly is provided by the networks and stations. Cable ITV Werkly is not always notified of changes prior to going to press. All program schodules are subject tochange. To advertise, call 478-5150, Monday. Friday between 8:30 am and 5:00 pm. Copy deadlines is 5:00 pm Friday, 10 days before publication.

We'veGot What Your Looking For!

