New Club To Meet

The Northville Singles Club will hold its next meeting Friday, July 2, in the Scout Building, 215 W. Cody, Northville.

The recently formed group, for men and women over 30, is planning activities for the summer. It will meet every Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Northville location.

All interested in joining may contact L. E. Turner, 43767 Park Grove, Northville, or V. M. McKeever, 705 Randolph, Northville.

'Chalk Garden' To Star July 2

Wonderland Center's series of Friday night live musical performances will continue during July, opening with a group called the Chalk Garden July 2 and 8.

The Chalk Garden is composed of David DelGrosso, Larry Theisz and John Irwin. DelGrosso sings lead and plays bass guitar, sax and percussion. Theisz plays guitar and bass organ and Irwin is a drummer.

The Wonderland Music Festival is held in the center of the mall beginning at 9 p.m. There is no charge for admission.

The center is located at Plymouth and Middle Belt Rds., Livonia.

Utilize Space

Build-in shelves of western wood utilize wasted space in closets below shirts, blouses, dresses below shirts, blouses, children's clothing.

Redford, GC, Westland Musicians Tour Europe

Eleven Observerland high school students left Friday for a trip to Europe with a little added something... an opportunity to stay with children's families.

They are part of the 102-member Musical Youth International chorus and band, which is now on a four-week tour.

include two appearances at Man and His World in Montreal, several concerts in Washington, D.C., and New York City, and their final home concert in White Auditorium, Flint, on Aug. 1.

WIID

We feel kind of bad about signing off at sundown. But just because the sun sets, it doesn't mean the entertainment stops. You could enjoy an evening at Lofy's or The Red Garter. You might like to make a free visit to The Sidney-Hill Health Club. Or get your hair done at Show-Time Hair Fashions. Or use free tickets for a movie, play or sports event that you've won on WIID. If you'd just like to stay home and listen to an album that you won in one of our contests, that's okay too. It's all on us. Just because the sun goes down, WIID doesn't let you down. And we'll be glad to wake you up in the morning. Just dial 1090 AM.

Dressed in their smart uniforms of navy blue blazers and grey skirts or pants, the students, who represent 51 high schools from Ohio and Michigan, met Friday morning at Redford United Methodist Church. There they boarded busses which took them to London, Ont., for a performance which opened a festival in London. This performance and plans for their accommodations were arranged by the London Kiwanis Club.

From there they traveled to Toronto, where they left via jet for Amsterdam, Holland. Again they will board busses for performances in schools, churches, concert halls and recreation centers in Holland, Denmark, Sweden and West Germany.

THEY WILL return to Toronto July 23 to begin an eight-day bus tour which will
