Farmington Socially Speaking

A singer related recently on a TV program that he is accident prone. In a week's time he had more idiotic things happen to him than anyone can imagine—like being in two head-on collisions in one day while standing still; stepping on a Rice Krispy and cutting his big toe; while standing by the pool talking to his wife, a bug hit his eye and his contact lens was relocated to the corner of his eye... and on and on.

My teenage daughter heard the program while baby sitting and hoped that I was watching the same program, which I wasn't. "I laughed and laughed," she related. "That's just like my mom's crazy doings." This was before she knew I had put a cigarette in my lips—wrong end of cigarette which resulted in a slight burn.

THERE WERE many graduation festivities in the area. A dinner party for family and friends was held Sunday evening, June 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lademan of Markham in honor of son Tom who graduated from North Farmington High School with high honors. Tom will attend pre-med at University of Minnesota in September.

Miss Claudia Anne Shalhoub was honored with a party by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Shalhoub of Richmond Hills Dr. on her graduation from Our Lady of Mercy High. Over 100 guests gathered for a garden party. Everyone enjoyed the event, and the hot and cold buffet of American, Syrian and Polish foods. By the way, Mrs. Shalhoub promised to reveal a family recipe for homemade yogurt which will be shared with you when space permits.

Guests included: maternal grandmother Mrs. Anna Janowiak from Uby, Mich. who is 82 years young; the Arthur Janowiak family of Uby; the Herbert Janowiak family—Herbert is Claudia's godfather; Mr. and Mrs. Roman Smith from Minden City; Claudia's grandmother, Mrs. Irene Kowalski and aunt Pat Kowalski from Detroit; former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Urbanik from Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Litter from Orchard Lake; aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Shalhoub of St. Clair Shores; Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Bartoszewicz and children; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pardo of Hamtramck; Claudia's godmother, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Krapp of Warren; Miss Jane Heaphy, Miss Laura Sabat, Miss Kathy Kolbe and Claudia's little sister from Mercy, Miss Michelle Rapach.

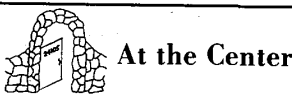

Of course there were scattered number of cousins and friends too numerous to mention.

who were weekend guests; Vic's mother, Mrs. Quinto Girolami, also from Milwaukee, who is usually privileged to stay a couple of months in the Girolami household throughout the year and will be guesting there until September. Farmington guests included: the George Garcia family; the Ed Curme family; the Arthur Melndoe family and Miss Adele Sowerby.

Gigi will teach the limited disability class in Orange County, Calif. in the fall.

MERIT SCHOLAR -- Cheryl A. DeYoung of 22641 Middle Belt, Farmington, is one of three recipients of the four-year college grants awarded annually by Detroit Edison in cooperation with the National Merit Scholar Corp. of Evanston, Ill. Presenting the award is William G. Meese, Edison president. She was chosen by the National Merit selection committee because of scholarship performance, citizenship and participation in community and school activities. A Farmington Senior High graduate, she plans to enter Michigan State University this fall to become a mathematician.

At the Center

Because of the tremendous interest in the Farmington Community Center's tennis program, classes for beginners will be offered as well as for intermediate and advanced students, beginning July 19.

THE STARTING date has been changed from July 14 to July 19. The schedule will be:

Mrs. Colyer Will Lead Auxiliary

FARMINGTON Mrs. Sandra Colyer has been elected president of the Farmington Area Jaycee Auxiliary for the coming year. Also chosen in the auxiliary's recent election were Mrs. Nancy Potter, first vice-president, and Mrs. Mardi Reichardt, second vice-president.

Other new officers are: Mrs. Cindy Dickson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dale Kevelligan, recording secretary; and Mrs. Sandy Flintry, treasurer.

Auxiliary directors elected are Mrs. Eileen Breitweg, Mrs. Nora Love, Mrs. Jane Sprys, Mrs. Carol Sweet and Mrs. Carol Whitaker.

Mrs. Suzanne Gernick, outgoing auxiliary president, will serve as chairman of the board.

Assisting the Jaycees is the auxiliary's primary purpose in such projects as the needy children's Christmas party, junior miss, banded house and the Farmington Founders Festival.

8-9 a.m., intermediate, for grades 10-12; 9-10 a.m., intermediate for adults; 10-11 a.m., intermediate, grades 5-9; 11-12 a.m., beginning for grades 5-9; 3-4 p.m., beginning for grades 5-9; 4-5 p.m., beginning for adults; and 5-6 p.m., beginning for grades 10-12.

The classes will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday for three weeks, or nine sessions for a fee of $16. Nancy Johnson, from the physical education department of North Farmington High School, is the instructor. She has played tennis for 19 years and had private lessons from Doris Hart, one of America's great woman players, for 11 years.

CLASSES STARTING in the week of July 12. Art classes starting July 7 for children 6-9 years old from 10-11 a.m. and one for youngsters 10 and up from 11 a.m. to noon. There are places left in both classes.

Instructor Robin Rocker is a member of the Michigan All Stars and the National Baton Twirlers Association. The classes will meet Monday and Wednesday for five weeks or 10 sessions for $16.

Four new art classes start the week of July 12. Art for children 8-11 years old with William Harmon instructing will meet Monday and Wednesday from 1-3 p.m.

Karyl Hill will have three classes on Tuesday and Thursday as follows: art for children 5-7, 9-11 a.m.; for children 8-11, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; and art for junior and senior high students, 1-3:30 p.m. The fee is $15 and $1 for materials for all the art classes. The six sessions will be held in three weeks.

For information on any of these classes please call the Center at 474-2990.

MISS GIGI GIROLAMI's graduation from Eastern Michigan University earned her a degree in special education and a graduation dinner party. Gigi is a graduate of Marian High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Girolami of Craftsbury.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Girolami's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Z. Reinertsen from Milwaukee.
