Paul Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Connor, was married to Christian Bentley of Northville June 25. They were married in the Timothy Lutheran Church in Livonia. The Connor address is 22845 Violet.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hagen of Parker, South Dakota, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jeffers of 22762 Lilac this week. They came to say goodbye to their daughter and son-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. William Jerdan of Philadelphia who were sent here to Farmington to take a course at the Missionary Internship on Freedom Rd. before leaving for Europe. On June 13, the Jeffers were guests at a family reunion at Selfridge Field Air Base. It was a farewell to their nephew Lt. Col. John M. Hays and family who are being transferred to McCord Air Base in Washington. Highlight of the day was a tour of the base and Maine lobster, especially flown in, for 35 people.

The Phillips family were hosts to Mr. Phillips' brother and his wife from Victorville, Calif., in their home at 22779 Lilac. Three busy weeks were spent, including a trip to Georgetown, Ontario, where a family reunion was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Beemer of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Berton

Phillips of Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips of Victorville, Calif.; and the E.R. Phillips family.

Included in the party were the offspring of the parents; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cottingham of Kingston Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Manser of Baden, Ontario, and their children, Lin and Don; Mr. and Mrs. David McNeerney of Toronto and their children Steven, Harold and Katherine Anne. The host and hostess of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Phillips and their five offspring. Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berton Phillips of Winnipeg.

Pick 11 For Boys' State

FARMINGTON Eleven Farmington boys were selected to attend Wolverine Boys State at Michigan State University June 16-23 to receive practical experience in the problems of self-government. From Harrison High School are: Jim Mason of 25548 Lynford, sponsored by the Farmington Lions Club; and Rick Hughes of 25885 Chapelwigh, sponsored by Farmington Township. Alternate is Bob Ely of 28156 Shadylane.

From North Farmington High are: Bradley Smith of 29360 Summerwood, sponsored by American Legion Post 346 of Farmington; Gary Sieder of 28976 Ramblewood, sponsored by North Farmington Kiwanis; and Martin Raymond of 31021 Hunter's Whip, also sponsored by North Farmington Kiwanis. Alternates are Craig Gow of 28579 Westleigh, William Weaver of 28850 Leamington and Shawn McCrum of 29228 Valleyside.

From Farmington Senior High are: Alan Vassiliakos of 29886 Barfield, sponsored by

City of Farmington; Andrew Abid of 33025 Tall Oaks, sponsored by Farmington Kiwanis; and Thomas Kempf of 24900 Ivywood Dr., sponsored by Farmington Area Jaycees. Alternates are Kip Anderson of 3778 Rhonswood, Daniel Lekoovich of 33914 Macomb and Bruce Belcour of 33715 Bernadine.

From Our Lady of Sorrows: James Abowd of 29286 W. 12 Mile, sponsored by the Groves-Walker Post 346; Nicholas Hofess of 31510 Rocky Crest, sponsored by the Farmington Elks; and Paul Brakora of 28254 Kiltartan, sponsored by the Farmington Exchange Club. Alternates are Theodore Kozerski of 23278 Crown Point Ct. and Chris Centers of 20180 Westmore.

Boys State is structured so participants may put the theories of American government into actual practice as they are taught in the classroom. The boys control city, county and state offices as organized under the plan of the "Mythical 51st State."
