FARMINGTON
The Falcons were the victims of a perfect game by Plymouth Canton senior pitcher Kelly Holmes
Thursday, losing 13-0 in five inn-

Holmes faced the minimum 15 batters and struck out 10.

"She was right on today," Can-ton coach Jim Arnold said. "It looked like she started where she left off last year."

The closest the Falcons came to getting on base occurred late in the game when they tried to bunt and Holmes went to a 2-2 count.

"She boxe down and struck the girl out," Arnold said. "I couldn't believe the speed on the ball; she threw it harder than I've ever seen her throw. She's faster than she was last year and improved."

Holmes also swung a mean bat for the Chiefs. She had two hits, including a bases-loaded double, a sacrifice and four RBI.

Suzanne Carlson was the losing pitcher. She struck out two and walked six. Canton had nine hits.

"I told my girls 'That's the best we'll face all year,' "Farmington coach Julie Ingalls said.

The Falcons were 14-6 winners Wednesday over host Bloomfield Hills Andover in their season

Carlson tossed a four-hitter, fanned three and walked two. Ni-cole Bingamen was 4-for-4, stole four bases, had four RBI and scored three runs.

Jenny Sever had three hits, in-cluding a pair of doubles, and three RBI; Sara Thomas had two hits and one RBI, and she scored
