Many churches teach that God doesn't ever believe the people if just given the chance to hear it. But the Apostle Paul taught that "the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness" (1 Cor. 1: 18). The only ones that appreciate hearing the gospel are those that are ALREADY saved (1 Cor. 1: 18, 23-24). If you're interested in learning more about the true purpose of the gospel and preaching, come worship with us.

MOTHERS AREN'T ALWAYS RIGHT, BUT THEY DO THEIR BEST

When you were small, she was alert.
And comforted your childhood fears;
And any time that you got hurt,
She'd be on hand to dry your tears.
Then later, you became a teen,
And Mother had no more to say.
You never let her intervene.
With warnings you would not obey.
Although she wasn't always right,
Yet nonetheless, she did her best;
And when she made you see the light,
You knew how much you had progressed
Your House of Worship will explain
Those things you never can repay;
Your mother's love was not in vain,
So honor her in every way.
—Cloria Nowak

There is no such thing as a non-working mother.
—Hester Mundis

"Her children arise up and call her blessed."
