

DOUBLE EAGLE — Farmington Boy Scout Troop 110 had two members elevated to eagle scout during its recent court of honor held at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic parish.

At the Center

Camera Club meets the first and third Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m., Bridge Club meets second and fourth Friday at 8 p.m.; the Naturalists the fourth Monday at 8 p.m.; "Fifty Plus Club" every Tuesday from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and each Tuesday morning the Weight Watchers meet at 10 a.m.

Through the generous donations of the people of Farmington, the Center now has a sizeable library of books. Girls Scouts of Troop 724, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Justice, reorganized the books for the Center, arranging them in categories for easy reference. The Center wishes to thank the troop leaders and the girls who are: Diane Treglow, Pat Jobnessey, Claire Schiller, Debbie Justice, Beth and Janet Allaben, Debbie Green, Lorin Quait, Barbara Bunday, Lee Ellsworth and Mary Craverston.

THE ARMCHAIR Travelers Group will meet at 8 p.m. May 7 and visit Iguaazu Falls, Rio De Janeiro, and Bahin De Salvador in Brazil with Mrs. Ben Vandenbelt.

Plans for further meetings will be made at this time. Anyone who has slides or movies of other countries and would like to show them should contact Mrs. Alberta Taylor at the Community Center.

Danie Horn, 14-years-old, from Livonia will play a piano recital May 16 in the Farmington Community Center. The program will consist of Schuman's "Forest Scenes", the second Prokofiev sonata, Beethoven's "Tempest Sonata" and three works of Chopin, "Berceuse", "Nocturne" in C sharp minor and the "Ballade" in A flat.

A student of Lawrence LeGore of the Michigan Conservatory of Music in Detroit, Danie was soloist for the fourth annual Louise Smith Petersen Memorial Recital in the Detroit Institute of Arts lecture hall in April. He has previously given three other solo recitals and has appeared in honor recitals at the National Music Camp in Interlochen and will appear as soloist in the Schumann piano concerto with the Livonia Junior Youth Symphony.

2 Earn Eagle Rank

FARMINGTON The troop, sponsored by Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, is led by Scoutmaster Molt Lilley.

Michael, a student at Power Junior High in Farmington earned his eagle by passing out 300 samples of a non-phosphate detergent with a note asking for a response. He received some 30 of the response cards back.

Jeffrey, a Power Junior High student, collected clothing for the Hawthorn Center through the church he attends, St. John Lutheran.

Pack Tells Race Champs

FARMINGTON John Barlo and Tim Sisson were the big winners in Cub Scout Pack 111's 1971 "Pine-wood Derby". John beat out 34 other boys to become the champ.

Brian Munn in his first year of competition was the runnerup. In addition to John and Brian, other den champs were John Dempsey, Walter McCoskey and Bill Brown. Den runners-up were John Keller, Jay Fluegel, Mike Tetreault, Clark Gilson and Chris Reardon.

Tim Sisson, last year's champ, was the quickest of the 18 Webelos boys' cars with Jim Schneider close behind as runnerup. Tim and Jim were champs in their dens as was Bill Mack. Webelo den runners-up were
