flies fly.

Gusoff, 4-for-6 on the day, had two hits for Walter's, while Brad Maxwell added a two-run single in the third.

Walter's pitcher Mike Zielinski, who also went the distance scattering five walks and five hits, suffered the defeat.

Del-Wal beats Wendy's

In a game played Friday at Eastern Michigan University, Del-Wal topped Wendy's, 4-2, as pitcher Mark Temple got a rare win and save, while striking out 14.

After reliever Don Spiniozzi allowed two unearned runs in the seventh, Temple returned to the mound from right field, striking out the final batter on three pitches with the tying run on base.

Todd Faulkner and Andy Duncan each played five hits for Del-Wal, which won its second straight. Faulkner also scored twice.

Duncan, Matt Recht and Noah Bremen each drove in runs.

Brian Burns had two hits and two RBIs, including a triple. Brian Burns had two hits, while Tom

Chiefs top Chargers in softball

BY BRAD EMONS

Livonia Churchill tried sleep-bombing its way on base against Plymouth Canton fireballer Kelly Holmes in Tuesday's critical Class A predistrict softball opener.

The Chargers waved their bats before Holmes even moved into her windup, but they wound up waving a white flag as the University of Michigan-bound hurler struck out 13 in a 1-0 triumph for the state-ranked Chiefs, now 30-5 on the season.

Churchill, wasting a four-hit four-strikeout performance by junior hurler Karen Jose, bows out of state tournament action with a 15-6 record.

Three of the Chargers' losses came against their Western Division rival in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

"I was really nervous about this game because they (Churchill) are an excellent team and their coaching staff has done a whale of a job all year," Canton coach Jim Arnold said. "We worked hard on pitch coverage. The only thing I was worried about was that they might change their strategy. That's why we brought up our first baseman and third baseman to challenge them."

Canton collected only four hits off Jose (16-3), but made two of those count for its only run in the sixth.

Kate Strahan led off the inning with a line shot to left field, which skipped all the way to the fence.

Tina Schaefer then bunted Strahan over to third, setting the stage for Dan Mortimer.

With first base left open, the senior shortstop looped a long fly ball over the head of Churchill left fielder Carla Karoub for a double, scoring Strahan with the game's only run.

"Dan is a good power hitter, but we gave her the slap bunt sign to draw in for the infielders," Arnold said. "Coach (Larry) Bober notched their fielders were way in, so with two strikes I had her hit away. She got lucky and hit the ball over the left fielder's head."

Holmes, meanwhile, allowed only three runners to reach base in running her record to 19-2. The hard-throwing right-hander gave up a two-out infield single to Anne Roule in the third.

Jose reached base in the fourth on an outfield error, while Kelly Szymanski took first with two-out in the seventh.

AASC reaches semis

The Farmington Hills-based team won its first four games and its division before losing 13-5 to Active Tool & Die.

All-American Sports Center was a semifinalist Saturday in the Port Huron Memorial Day Classic for men's modified fast-pitch softball teams.

The Farmington Hills-based team won its first four games and its division before losing 13-5 to Active Tool & Die.

Bill Rowley and Jim Dillon had three hits each as All-American opened the tournament with a 14-2 win over Smith Creek Hunt Club.

Sean Maloney, Mike Greener and Dave Moudoux added two hits apiece in the game. Maloney also had four RBIs, Greener and Moudoux two each.

The next game produced a 14-6 victory against Emory Farmington. John Longridge was 4-for-4 and Dave Brubaker, Doug Kirkpatrick and Rich Roy had three hits apiece. Longridge and Greener had two RBIs each.

All-American walked over Flange's 35-1 and clinched the round-robin pool title with a 16-3 defeat of the Port Huron Cards.

Kirkpatrick had a 4-for-4 game, which included a home run and four RBIs. Longridge and Moudoux had three hits each, Greener and Moudoux two RBIs apiece.

Rowley, Dillon and Roy had two hits each and Moudoux two RBIs in the semifinal game.

Harrison rebounded with a 10-9 win over Novi in 10 innings. The teams used the international tie-breaker, placing a runner on second base in extra innings.

Amy Geary, who was 4-for-6, had the game-winning hit in the bottom of the 10th.

Hopkins and Schnelder, who caught all 10 innings, had three hits each and Myslini two. Schnelder also had two RBIs and scored two runs.

Lacosse was the winning pitcher in relief, working the last seven innings.
