"I am seeking a seat on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to represent the citizens of my District and the entire county who have been unable to have their voices heard or who have been unable to understand the county's budgetary systems and some of the decisions regarding the same...."

Sewer Sways

Not a "voice from above," but one from below helped Franklin D. Roosevelt win his third-term nomination in 1940. The voice belonged to Chicago's Sewer Commissioner, planted in the basement of the convention hall. His job was to yell periodically into the loudspeaker system, "We want Roosevelt!"

GENERAL ELECTION
