"I believe that my experience as a practicing trial lawyer for over twenty years and my experience as both Associate Municipal Judge and Municipal Judge of the City of Farmington have given me an intimate acquaintance with the problems that will confront a District Judge. . . ."

EARL C. OPPERTHAUSER, 43, 32216 Baintree, Farmington. Education: Detroit Public Schools, Wayne State University Law School. Occupation: Trial Attorney. Experience: Redford Township Drain Commissioner; trustee,

Farmington Township Board and Planning Commission; active in civic, church, school and service organizations, 19 years trial experience in 18 counties and four states; Appellate experience in six Appellate Courts; Active member of seven Bar Associations.

"I am very concerned about increased crime, disrespect for authority and the present handling of law violators. We need fair, firm, intelligent treatment of these people to teach respect for the law and to protect innocent citizens. We must have concerned action, not complacency; information, not intuition; dedication, not mediocrity."

DEMOCRAT

(1) JAMES TIERNEY, 62, 5633 Arcola, Garden City. Education: Grammar School, Ford Trade School, Night School at Fordson and Garden City. Occupation: State Representative. Experience: 1944-54 Member of Common Council, six years as Mayor Pro Tem, seven years Chairman of Zoning Board. 1956-60 Mayor of Garden City, 1956-60 Wayne County Supervisor, 1964-68 State Representative.

1. "I feel a uniform tax for education is long overdue. Last year I introduced a bill for a uniform millage of 23 mills for state aid participation and the amount derived from this source, plus last year's State Aid Formula, as computed by the D.P.L. was $680 per pupil."

2. "The short-term policy must, in my opinion, be the attainment of safety in our cities. The long term answer must be a combined effort by all government agencies, plus the involvement of the parents, schools, churches, industry and labor to correct the evil environment that is producing the law-breakers."

REPUBLICAN

HAROLD E. BERGQUIST, 31225

Sheridan, Garden City. Education: High School. Occupation: Retired (early). Experience: Many years of civic and public participation. Member of Zoning Board of Appeals. Appointed to Canvass Commission in 1964. A leader in church work.

1. "I think you must be specific when you speak of education. There are many steps to be taken in the Legislative procedure. I will look objectively at all bills presented."

2. "This depends upon the scope of the problem; many can be solved at the community level. Major problems should no doubt be given attention by higher authority."

'Americans prefer wages to welfare. We need adequate training programs to put people to work. The present Congress provided less than 1/3 of the money needed to help everyone become self-supporting. The long run cost of this failure will be very high -- both in dollars and, more important, in wasted human lives.'
