Eleven schools in Michigan now have agricultural courses and in the schools where it has been introduced 60 per cent of the pupils are taking it. Out of 250 pupils in the Hudson high school, 160 are taking the course. A plan is on foot by which a bill may be introduced in the legislature making such a course compulsory in all the high schools in the state, the state to aid to a certain extent in their support.
Miss Electa Chilson spent Wednesday with her brother in Plymouth.

THE DETROIT FREE PRESS
MICHIGAN'S FAVORITE DAILY
THE PRAIRIE FARMER
Prairie Farmer is the oldest agricultural publication in America. It is 70 years old—a great, helpful, farm paper, edited by men who have made farming a life study.
UNCLE REMUS' HOME MAGAZINE
The big illustrated magazine, founded by the world renowned author, Joel Chandler Harris; size 10x15, with nearly fifty pages, each issue. A work of art and beauty, an ideal home magazine, departments for all, interesting from cover to cover—one that voices the best and highest aspirations and portrays clean and generous ideals; a feast of story and fiction.
WOMAN'S WORLD
Gives more reading matter for the money than any monthly magazine printed. It entertains two million families every month. Every issue contains attractive articles on timely subjects, written by the foremost men and women of the day.
HOME LIFE
Stands first among popular magazines and its cheerful visits are welcomed each month by more than 900,000 homes. Monthly editorials and educational articles by Reverend Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, one of the foremost literary men of the west and long a national figure as a writer and lecturer, together with original, humorous stories written exclusively for Home Life by Opie Read is abundant evidence of the high character of all articles appearing on its pages.
