Committee is holding its annual dinner establishing Detroit Children's Research Fund of Weitzmann Institute on Sept. 22 at the Hyatt Regency Dearborn.

Honorary chairman are Yvan Silva, M.D., and Matthew Rabinowitz, M.D.

Twenty-two M.D.s are the honorary committee for the benefit, which features a performance of "All Night Strut." Lola Spector Freeman is chairman of the institute's executive committee. Dr. Silva said, "When you support the Children's Research Fund at the Weitzmann Institute of Science, we leave our children and grandchildren with the promise of a better world."

Tickets are $300 per person, or tables of 10 for patrons at $10,000, or tables of 10 for $5,000, as a builder.

Swimming party

Cheryl Hall and David Lindsay invited their one-year-old son Alex's friends and their close friends for a buccanier swimming party last Sunday at their Pine Lake home in West Bloomfield. The rains came and no swimming, but everyone managed a good time — the babies, kids and grown-ups. Hall had invited her MSU college roommate Sue Deacon, her husband, J.D., and their sons Eric, 1 1/2, and 3-year-old Jeffrey.

Evening with Interlochen

Interlochen Center for the Arts near Traverse City will present an Evening with Interlochen on Saturday, Sept. 18, at the Somerset Collection in Troy.

Proceeds will support summer residency of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. After cocktails and a buffet dinner 7:30-9 p.m., a Somerset Collection Fashion Show featuring a special presentation by Barneys of New York and Somerset will follow.

Third Meg Mallon

Marian Poling served as honorary chairwoman for the third Meg Mallon Golf Outing. The LPGA Golf Champion is an alumni of Mercy High School. Poling played in Mallon's foursome, and Ford sponsored several teas. Meg's dad, now on the West Coast, worked for Ford years ago.

International Institute

Christopher and Kitty Kittides of Bloomfield Hills are chairman and chairwoman of the eighth annual International Auction to be presented Sunday by the Friends of the International Institute.

The institute also is celebrating its 76th anniversary Oct. 15-17 with its original Old World Market at headquarters in Detroit's Cultural Center.

The auction is at the International Institute, 111 E. Kirby across from the Detroit Institute of Arts. Valet parking is provided. Ticket price is $25 per person, with an international menu and wine or other beverages, 1:20-3 p.m., and a live auction with Tam Angott as auctioneer at 3 p.m.

The International Institute helps immigrants become part of America while preserving their ethnicity.

Relieve hunger

Forgotten Harvest works to alleviate hunger in metro Detroit. Tim Allen, star of "Home Improvement" on television, who is from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, will appear at Comedy Night II for Action Against Hunger on Saturday at the Fisher Theatre in Detroit.

Allen will be joined at the Fisher by Mark Ridley as emcee and comedians Jim McLean, Keith Ruff and Jill Weathers.

Children's research: Dr. Yvan Silva is serving as honorary chairman for the Weitzmann Institute of Science benefit Wednesday, Sept. 22, at the Hyatt Regency Dearborn.

Before the show: Dale Truding, principal of Midvale Elementary School, checks on Joshua, 8 (center), and Benjamin Friedman, 4, just before Apple of My Eye fashion show starts.

Swimming party: Roommates at Michigan State University, Sue Deacon (left) holds Jeffrey, 3, and Cheryl Hall holds Alex, 1. J.D. Deacon (center) holds Eric, 18 months.

Tell 'em you're walking!

That's what thousands of concerned people will do on Sunday, October 3rd. They'll walk at one of two beautiful Metropark locations - Kensington near Millford and Metro Beach near Mt. Clemens. With support from friends and relatives, they'll pledge to help find a cure for Diabetes - a leading cause of death by disease here in Michigan. Sign up now for the walk of the season, then call everyone you know and tell 'em you're walking!

To register or volunteer, call (313) 552-0450
