Some other differences: Kelly is right-handed as opposed to Erin, who is left. Kelly wears hangs on her forehead, compared to Erin who wears her hair back. Kelly is also more apt to bang around the opposition, according to Mantyla.

"Kelly is more aggressive but Erin has really asserted herself and blossomed," Mantyla said.

RU was seeing double on Harrison's side and the rims must have looked pretty blury. The Panthers shot 14-64 from the field for 22 percent and 8-6-21 at the free throw line (20 percent). Perkins scored 10 points in the first quarter while RU was making only 2-15 ahots as the Hawks opened up a 14-6 lead. Rachel Clor scored RU's first two points of the game but did not score another point.

"For the most part it was our inability to work the offense," RU coach Marty Lowney said. "We've been practicing our man-to-man offense since the start of practice."

The Hawks shot 42 percent from the field (19-45) and 50 percent from the free throw line (9-18). Perkins failed to make a field goal in two attempts in the second half as RU made it hard for an goal in two steeppes in the secondaria as Ru made it hard for an entry pass.

"We have to realize when the post is shut down," Mantyle said. "But we've done a lot better job moving the ball side to side."

Perkins led the Hawks with eight rebounds and Jenny Mystham with Amanda Ault, grabbed als. Krista Snow contributed siz points. The family atmosphere is aided by Mantyla's coaching staff that includes Junior warsity social Richelle Reilly and warsity saisant coaches Brian Swinchart and Tom Negoshian (the North boys baskelball coach); four coaches on the bench," Perkins said. "One coach eart watch sverything."
