PIERSON SCHOOL NOTES

From February 3 to 10 we are to have book week at Pierson School. We are to have a splendid display of books, of literature on libraries and their uses. On the following Sunday they will be on display at the church and we'll have a special "Book" service and sermon. This is under the auspices of the P. T. A. We plan to have some new books for the school and to double our Wayne Library branch in the Fredericks store.

Some of the Pierson School teachers visited the Zone A teachers meeting last Saturday.

Primary Notes

The following pupils were neither absent nor tardy for the month of December: Dorothy Altama, June Ault, Esther Graham, Carol Gunn, Albert Hardy, Robert Hardy, Viola Wolfe, Alvin Jones, Andrew Jones, Edward Lorian, Marion Lorian, Lawrence Nightengale, Mary Reechko.

High School

M. A. Kapka of the State Department visited our high school Monday. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the general administration, and standard of work started by the school. Harvey Crahan sustained a second accident within a few weeks Tuesday night. He received severe cuts around the eyes and head, and his shoulder dislocated in a motor car accident at Seven Mile and Farmington roads. He is at Harper Hospital, Detroit.

The board has recently added about fifty new books to our library. We have to have quite a large library very soon.
