BOND SCHOOL PRIMARY TEACHER'S MARRIAGE IS ANNOUNCED BY PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shepley of Detroit, announce the marriage of their daughter, Leanne, primary teacher, of the Isaac Bond School, on December 26, to Douglas E. Ferguson at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Chicago. Rev. E. Wagoner performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Ferguson will join her husband after school closes at Ironwood, Mich., where he is employed as manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

The Ladies' Community Circle will meet with Mrs. Justin Bulis on February 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Drake and daughter, Nellie Jean, with Miss Helen Garner, drove to Highland Park Sunday afternoon to visit Miss Estelle Hess, who is ill.

The Nichols School has been equipped with new blackboards throughout.

Several residents of this section have had to kill their dogs because of a mad dog running amongst them. Stewart Coe finally succeeded in killing the strange dog.

Mrs. William Lake has been ill for several days with a severe cold.

Nancy Gould, of the Oaklands, spent Sunday night with her friend, Martha Sutton of Pasadena Park.

Mrs. E. A. Chene and daughter, Elaine Jeanne, spent Saturday in Detroit.

Mrs. J. O'Brien visited in Pontiac on Monday.

Fred B. Hitchcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock, spent the early part of the week with his grandmother in Pontiac.

Martha Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sutton, of Pasadena Park, had dinner with Nancy Gould and her parents on Monday evening.

Jean Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, of the Orchard Lake road, has missed several days of school the past week because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Toth and family are making plans to move to Detroit in the near future.

Mrs. Isaac Bond spent Tuesday at the meeting of the Home Demonstration group held in Pontiac.

The Ladies of the North Farmington Independent Church gathered at Mrs. Arthur Coe's home on Tuesday and devoted the day to sewing for the family of Hans Hafemeister, whose home was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning.

The Oakland Heights Improvement Association will hold its regular meeting at the Bond School auditorium on Wednesday, February 1. Following a business session, there will be serving of refreshments and cards.

The North Farmington group in extension work will meet at the Bond School on Tuesday, January 31 at 1 o'clock. The subjects will be, "The Effects of Inadequate Diet" and "Beauty in the Kitchen."

A calf belonging to W. H. Kirkendall of Blue Mountain, Miss., was only twelve inches high and weighed only 15 pounds when three weeks old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mack of Cleveland, arrested for spooning in their own car, were awarded $3,675 damages by the common pleas court.

COMMISSIONERS PROCEEDINGS

Meeting of the Commissioners of the City of Farmington held January 23, 1928. Called to order by Mayor Butterfield at 7:35 P. M.

Commissioners present, Hogle, Gildemeister, Bicking, Staman and Johnson.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Mayor Butterfield announced the appointment of Howard Warner, James L. Hogle, Mrs. Frank Steele, Fred L. Cook, Mrs. Herman Schroeder and R. N. Crossman to the Cemetery Committee. This committee to advise concerning the best administrative methods of caring for the cemeteries and also concerning their future development and extension.

A lengthy discussion in regard to the parking of automobiles upon the streets was indulged in. Action upon the matter was deferred until the next meeting.

de by Hogle, seconded by Johnson, that a committee be appointed to inaugurate a plan to purchase a new fire engine for the protection of the city. Carried.

Adjourned.

N. H. POWER, City Clerk.
