REMEMBER

Mother's Day

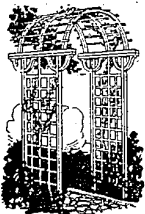

Sunday, May Thirteenth

Mother's Day is the one day in all the year you must not forget. Make it a part of your memory now—tie a string around your finger if you have to, because you'll regret it if you forget!

The daintiest gift of all for Mother's Day is

Flowers
of course

What more charming way of expressing the tender sentiments of affection and love? We have a wide assortment of potted blooms, bouquets and cut flowers. We advise ordering now.

Pergola and Trellis Work

If you are thinking of beautifying your grounds don't omit the most distinctive touch of all—pergolas and trellis work that costs but little in comparison with the beauty it affords. We specialize in this work.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling Martha Jane, who passed away April 24, 1927.

She was a little white rosebud A sweet little flower from birth And God took her home to Heaven Before she was soiled on earth. But in God's Garden, free from pain.

Where grow his fairest flowers, We know will find our Martha Jane.

This vanished bloom of ours sadly missed by her loving parents, brothers and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Taggart, LeRoy, Floyd and Wanda.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, George G. Cox, who died five years ago, April 29, 1923.

Gone but not forgotten. His loving parents, sisters and brothers.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank our friends and neighbors, the North Farmington Independent Church circle, Oak-Highlands Improvement Association and P. T. A. of the Isaac Bond School for the sympathy and floral offering sent during our bereavement.

Mrs. Geo. W. Howe.

FOUR FROM FARMINGTON ATTEND STATE MEETING OF G. O. P. AT DETROIT

Supervisor Isaac Bond, Judge John J. Schulte, Bernhard Meyers and Deputy Clayton Stokes of Farmington attended the Republican State Convention in Detroit Tuesday evening. Among other events they participated in a barbecue dinner given by the Union League Club for the delegates. Supervisor Isaac Bond was a State meet delegate, and Mr. Meyers and Judge Schulte were alternates, these men having been chosen at the Sixth District Convention in Pontiac.

NEIGHBORS SEE FIRE AND GIVE ALARM. HOME OF A. C. AUGLER IS SAVED

Alertness of neighbors on Monday saved the home of A. C. Augler in Parker subdivision, south of Farmington, from destruction by fire. The blaze started on the roof, while the family were away from home. The Farmington fire department responded with chemicals, which extinguished the fire. It was reported also that most of the damage, which was not extensive, was caused by the chemicals.

Thousands of Miles of Service at a Small Expenditure

Is the privilege of every owner of a Model T Ford Car. The automobile that for twenty years led the motor car industry still serves more people than any other—over one-third of all automobiles in use today are Model T Fords.

Genuine Ford Parts for the Model T will be made "until the last Model T is off the road." And the first-class service which this organization has always put foremost will be continued, until the last Model T in this section has been "traded in" for a

New Ford Car

Why not bring in your Model T and have it looked over by our mechanics? A small investment in service may give you many months of satisfactory use at a low cost.
