FUNERAL SERVICES FOR NORTH FARMINGTON MAN ARE HELD IN DETROIT

Funeral services were held in Detroit recently for George Howe, a resident of North Farmington, who died after a short illness. Mr. Howe had made his summer home in North Farmington for many years, and had remained throughout the year for the past four years.

He was an employee of the Ford Motor Co. for nearly 20 years, and had planned retirement in December, when he would have completed a score of years with the company. He is survived by his father, mother, widow, three sisters and two brothers, all of Detroit.

Mr. Howe was a member of Metropolitan M. E. Church of Detroit, and a charter member of Highland Park Masonic Lodge No. 467. Burial took place in Acacia Park Cemetery, on Southfield road.
