Remember Often

On Wednesday all America paused to pay tribute at the last resting-places of the Nation's hero dead. Beautiful wreaths of flowers adorn each sacred place today.

As Memorial Day, 1928, passes into memory, would it not be well to remember these hallowed spots often throughout the year—that each Memorial Day may find them more beautiful—as they grow more sacred—with the passing years?

cars of a new model were on the road within five months after the model was introduced. It is, of course, the Bigger and Better CHEVROLET which holds this remarkable record.

In Farmington, too, the New Chevrolet has won ever-increasing favor. Here, as everywhere, more and more enthusiastic owners commend its quality, its outstanding value.

Chevrolet's reputation in Farmington is backed by an organization equipped to give the utmost in modern motor car service.
