JEAN CLARK, FORMERLY OF FARMINGTON GAINS HONORS IN CITY SCHOOL

Unusual honors have been won at Northwestern High School, Detroit, by a former student of Farmington schools, Miss Jean Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, formerly of Farmington.

Miss Clark, who is in her first year at Northwestern High, was recently chosen president of the A. F. F., a prominent club, and vice-president of Mt. Vernon, a leading house at the school. In addition, she received all A's in her scholastic work.

The offices to which Miss Clark was elected rarely go to first, second-year students, older pupils usually being chosen for the honors.

SIXTY WOMEN AT ANNUAL OUTING OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Shakespeare's 'As You Like It' Presented in Costume At Cass Benton Park

Sixty women of Farmington enjoyed an afternoon's outing, including presentation of Shakespeare's idyll, 'As You Like It,' Wednesday afternoon at the annual "President's Day" outing of Farmington Woman's Club. The outing was held at Cass Benton Park on the Northville-Plymouth road.

Following luncheon, members of the club presented the Shakespearean comedy. Among those taking part were Miss Helen Hard, Mrs. C. W. Wilber, Mrs. Harrison Johnson, Mrs. Harold Daines, Mrs. Elmer Switzer, Mrs. Archie Leonard, Mrs. Frank Steele, Mrs. Fred L. Cook, Mrs. Lou Pauline, Mrs. L. Hendry, and Miss Meriah Andrews. Eight Pounds Is All She Needs

Eight pounds of Larro Growing Mash is all it takes to turn a six-week-old chick into a big, husky, healthy pullet all ready for high profit production in the laying pen. It brings the birds into production at the right age, with plenty of the kind of vigor it takes to ward off common poultry ailments and stand up under heavy continued egg production.
