F. W. C. ISSUES ITS ANNUAL YEAR-BOOK, 1928-29 PROGRAM

Discussion Of Political Issues And Platforms Included In Calendar

The Farmington Woman's club year-book for 1928-29 has been completed and is being issued to members of the club. It contains, besides the list of members and officers, the roster of committees, etc.

The club will take advantage of the presidential election this year to discuss the political issues, part platforms, qualifications and manner of electing a president. This discussion will be held on October 31, a few days before the election.

At the first meeting Rev. Fred Cowin of Ann Arbor, who recently spoke on the poet Robert Burns, before the Farmington Exchange Club, will talk on this topic. This will be the October 31.

Other programs include discussions of "three outstanding men of today," Mussolini, Lloyd George, and Herbert Hoover; Zola's Gale and her work; Suggestions for City Improvements; Patriotic Day on October 31; a "Book Lovers' Party"; Art Day; Music Day; Presidents' Day which concludes the work each year.

The officers of the club for this year are, president, Mrs. Switzer; vice-president, Mrs. Johnson; recording secretary, Mrs. Brown; corresponding secretary, H. S. Hard; treasurer, Mrs. Steele; critic, Miss Boynton.

The format of the year-book is in accordance with that of previous years, but a notable change has been made in the shades of cover and cords. The book was set up, printed, and bound in the office of the Farmington Enterprise.
