MISS EFFIE SCATES WEDS FRANK SEGER IN QUIET CEREMONY

Only Daughter Of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scates Married At Home; Couple On Trip

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scates of Oakland avenue Saturday at six o'clock, when their only daughter, Miss Effie Scates, was united in marriage to Frank H. Seger, of Brighton, Rev. Osterman officiating. Mr. Seger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Seger of North street, Brighton.

To the strains of "Lohengrin," the couple entered a tower of palms, hollyhocks, maiden-fern and American Beauty Roses. The bride wore a gown of white silk chiffon over white silk and carried yellow rosebuds and baby-breath, with streamers of blue tulle. Her bridesmaid, Miss Katherine Gillies of Glencoe, Ontario, a cousin, wore a dress of almond-green silk voile over green silk. She carried pink rose-buds and baby-breath, with streamers of pink tulle.

The groom was accompanied by his brother, Leon Seger.

The bride's mother, wore an evening-gown of Chinese silk. The groom's mother wore Nile-green silk.

Following the ceremony, twenty-five guests were present at dinner. The couple left for Ontario by motor, and on their return will make their home in Farmington.

TWO CHAMBERLAIN SISTERS ARE WED DURING PAST WEEK

Miss Winnie Chamberlain Married Saturday, Is Sister's Bridesmaid Tuesday

The wedding of two sisters, Misses Winnie and Jean Chamberlain were interesting events of the past week. Miss Winnie Chamberlain was married Saturday, August 4, to Russell Munroe, of Toledo, and three days later acted as bridesmaid for her sister, Jean, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Parmenter, on the Graham road.

Miss Jean Chamberlain was well to James Layn, who has resided for the past four years with Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson. The marriage took place at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, and was performed by Rev. Wallace of Detroit.

Mrs. Russell Munroe accompanied her sister, while Edward Thayer acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Wilma Johnson, of Detroit.

The couple are on a motor trip through the State and will be at home to their friends at 318 West Grand River, Farmington after August 20.

FARMINGTON DAY OFFER IS MADE BY EDGEWATER PARK REPRESENTATIVE

A proposal for a "Farmington Day," at Edgewater Park with the entire park turned over to Farmington folk for an all-day picnic, and free rides and other attractions, was made to the Farmington Exchange Club Wednesday morning. Neighboring communities, Northville, Redford, Brightmoor, and others are each having their "day" at the park this summer. Harold Bodkin, a park representative, told the club.

The outing, if decided upon, could be sponsored by the Exchange Club, and free tickets to the amusement would be given out, by Farmington merchants. Action on the proposition was deferred until next week.
