BLOOD TRANSFUSION IS FUTILE, WALLED LAKE WOMAN PASSES AWAY

A trip to the University Hospital at Ann Arbor last week proved fruitless. Thursday evening, when Mrs. Imogene Tuller Rice, of Walled Lake, died in the hospital. Mrs. Rice was 68 years old.

The deceased, who was the mother of Mrs. Avis Coe, had been ill some time. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Walled Lake Cemetery.

Mrs. Rice is survived by her husband, Andrew Coe, two sisters, Mrs. Harry Robinson of Plymouth, and Mrs. Mary Smith of Detroit; her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Coe, and son, Russell Rice of Ypsilanti, besides four grandchildren.

Mrs. Rice was born in Clinton Township, Wayne County, and had lived in this section all her life.

A substantial price is said to have been paid in the reported transfer of a parcel of land on the south shore of Walled Lake, near the public bathing beach. The property, said to have a frontage of 100 feet on the lake, is understood to have been sold for $12,000.
