Home Economics Club Now Being Organized

A Home Economics Club for high school girls is being organized by Miss Hyde.

The students taking some branch of domestic science are to be the charter members.

Miss Hyde states that the club will be of a social nature. Although nothing is definite yet, she intends to have meetings on Saturday when various phases of Home Economics which are of current interest will be discussed.

On reverse side of card list topics discussed or activities carried on. Also list actions taken or motions passed. Report approved.

TO SELL ARM BANDS - Felt arm-bands in the shape of pennants, for advertising the high school, are to be sold by the Student Council at some future date.

SENIORS REALIZE $9 - A total of $9 was taken in by the senior class Saturday from selling refreshments and real estate boom on a subdivision a short distance beyond Locks Corner. The senior both was the only one there.

FARMINGTON BEATEN IN SEASON'S FIRST GRID GAME

Farmington lost the first game of the season to Berkley on the home field last Friday by a score of 12 to 0.

Berkley kicked off to Cox, who made slight gain. Turner fumbled a forward pass and Farmington lost the ball but regained it by intercepting Berkley's forward pass.

The second half opened with Ota at left half back replacing Cox. Berkley kicked off. Although Farmington had the ball most of the time Berkley made a touchdown by intercepting one of our passes.
